

Graduation Speech

Good evening friends, family, faculty, and fellow graduates.

First and foremost, I want to express my deep gratitude to all of you who have supported me on this journey. To my parents, who have always believed in me and encouraged me to pursue my dreams, thank you for your unwavering love and guidance. To my teachers and mentors, who have imparted their knowledge and wisdom upon me, thank you for your invaluable guidance and encouragement. And to my friends, who have stood by me through thick and thin, thank you for your friendship and support.

As we stand here today, on the threshold of a new chapter in our lives, it's natural to feel a mix of emotions. We're excited about the opportunities and possibilities that lie ahead, but we're also a little nervous about what the future holds.

But as we look back on the past four years, or however long it took us to get here, we can't help but feel a sense of pride and accomplishment. We've worked hard to get to this point, and we should be proud of everything we've achieved.

We've made new friends, learned new things, and grown as individuals. We've faced challenges and overcome them, and we've learned to persevere through difficult times.

And as we move on from this chapter in our lives, I encourage each and every one of us to remember the lessons we've learned and the experiences we've had. These experiences will shape who we are and how we approach the world, and they will serve us well in the years ahead.

So, as we embark on this new journey, let's remember to keep an open mind, embrace new experiences, and stay true to ourselves. Let's not be afraid to take risks and try new things, because it's through taking chances that we truly grow and learn.

And most importantly, let's remember to be kind to ourselves and to others. The world can be a tough place at times, and we all need a little bit of kindness and compassion to get through it.

So, to all of my fellow graduates, I congratulate you on this amazing accomplishment. You deserve to celebrate and be proud of all that you've achieved.

But let's not forget that this is just the beginning. There are many more adventures and challenges ahead, and I can't wait to see what the future holds for each and every one of us.

Ask the Grey Sisters Elizabeth Iles, 1998-06 Ask the Grey Sisters Sault Ste Marie and the General Hospital 1898 1998 tells the story of the creation and one hundred year history of the Sault Ste Marie General Hospital At a time when Canada's healthcare system is at a crossroads and we are asked to make crucial decisions for its future it is intriguing and enlightening to look at the colourful past of a typical community hospital Throughout the 1890s Sault Ste Marie was a town in search of a hospital Its glory days at the centre of the fur trade route were long gone and the Sault was in the process of becoming a modern industrial community Such a community needed a hospital as a centrepiece to attract investors and as a necessary social institution to care for the hundreds of workers who were flocking to town without family support The General Hospital was established in 1898 after the town committee charged with developing a hospital had been refused funding by both the federal and provincial governments In desperation the committee met with the provincial Inspector of Asylums and Prisons the only provincial official with hospitals in his mandate If you wish a hospital of which the work is serious and lasting he is reported to have advised them ask the Grey Sisters And so began a fruitful association between the community of Sault Ste Marie and two orders of Grey Sisters who have operated the hospital through its one hundred year history Based in part on the extensive archival collections of both orders of nuns this history includes material from the sisters Chronicles and their personal reminiscences The result is an intimate and detailed portrait of a community hospital placed in the context of an emerging provincial system of health care

Don't Pull Your Sister's Hair Sam Flood Jr., 2025-04-01 Don't Pull Your Sister's Hair is the story of Sam Flood Jr the boy who didn't speak until he was five has become a man who wants to tell stories for a living Sam Flood was born on January 1 1984 two weeks late Walking and running at ten months he didn't speak until age five From the outset Sam seemed to have his own idea for how life should be writes his father in the opening chapter in which Sam pieces together his memories with stories told by his family to describe what it was like for Sam to express himself from pulling his sister Eliza's hair to wandering to Hagen Dazs at age three Sam's inability to speak concerned his parents who consulted doctors to figure out what was wrong One specialist said Sam would never graduate from high school let alone go to college Turning to writing reading and his own sense of humor to cope with constant bullying for his differences Sam proved them wrong earning a BA from Mitchell College in Connecticut Any family can find hope in Sam's story Anyone who feels different misunderstood bullied or unfairly treated in life can find light in the way Sam charted his course This is a story of neurodiversity but it's not just for people dealing with ADHD autism or any other diagnostic label because everyone has unique ways of thinking processing and behaving Don't Pull Your Sister's Hair is about the moments where neurodiversity creates opportunity It's the story of what's possible

Age of the Geek Kathryn E. Lane,2017-10-29 This collection examines the nerd and or geek stereotype in popular culture today Utilizing the media film TV YouTube Twitter fiction that often defines daily lives the contributors interrogate what it means to be labeled a nerd or geek While the nerd geek that is so easily recognized now is assuredly a twenty first century construct an examination of the terms history brings a greater understanding of their evolution From sports to slasher films Age of the Geek establishes a dialogue with texts as varied as the depictions of nerd or geek stereotypes In the Middle of

Nowhere Jonathan Crewe,2015-12-01 Relying on the author s personal recollections as well as on J M Coetzee s autobiographical and fictional works this book deals with Coetzee s formation as a writer of international prominence whose life and writing career began in South Africa Drawing on Coetzee s South African writings from Dusklands through Disgrace the book considers Coetzee s initial positioning in provincial South African political and literary culture as well as his drastic reframing of South African letters and his breakout into a global career culminating in the award of the Nobel Prize in 2003 The book considers Coetzee almost exclusively in relation to the South Africa from which he emigrated in 1999 but also emphasizes his momentous revision and undoing of the marginalized genre of South African Literature in the service of global authorship Written in the conviction that Coetzee s South African works remain his most impassioned and momentous ones this book seeks to come to terms with their conditions of possibility and distinctive achievement Carry On, Warrior

Glennon Doyle,2014-04-08 A New York Times essayist shares her journey from a self destructive college student to a devoted family woman and teacher while illuminating the importance of trusting in a higher power and being truthful about life s challenges Sound of Our Summer Seas Diane Menghetti,2004 There is some evidence that Japanese people may have visited Australia before the Europeans settled here The Japanese government legalised emigration in 1866 and twenty four passports to Australia were issued between 1868 and 1882 The first Japanese settler to arrive in Queensland in the 1870s was a circus acrobat By the end of the century nearly 4000 Japanese lived in Australia and 88% of them in Queensland Few people realise that Townsville in North Queensland hosted the first Japanese Consuls based in Australia They served their countrymen who were working in the pearling trochus shell and sugar industries The previously little known and fascinating story of Townsville s Japanese Consuls which is superbly illustrated by Townsville based artist Tate Adams will surprise and delight

Urban High School Students and the Challenge of Access William G. Tierney, Julia E. Colyar, 2009 Urban High School Students and the Challenge of Access documents a year in the life of five adolescents preparing for college The text examines the different pathways that brought these students to where they are living in poverty attending overcrowded schools and the pressure to be the first in their families to attend college are just a few of the challenges these students must battle en route to college and that impact their chances of success once there Their stories provide insight for practitioners and policy makers working to improve college access at urban high schools

After I Met Her Cathy Valle, 2023-08-30 A year before graduating college Dani Morales tries to survive her school days without succumbing to her depression Her only comfort in life is the company of her bunny and the occasional dates with Raul a man who only uses her for her body One day Dani s life changes completely when she meets a mysterious woman with blue hair named Ximena They become good friends and Dani develops a crush on her As the semester continues the two women are forced to face their dark pasts in order to be together

A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women Bayyinah S. Jeffries, 2014-04-04 A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women African American Muslim Women in the Movement for Black Self Determination 1950 1975 challenges traditional notions and interpretations of African American particularly women who joined the Original Nation of Islam during the Civil Rights Black Power era This book is the first major investigation of the subject that engages a wide scope of women from The Nation and utilizes a wealth of primary documents and personal interviews to reveal the importance of women in this community Jeffries reveals that women were respected in the movement and maintained a very clear and often sought after voice in the advancement of the Original Nation of Islam A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women replaces the typical portrait of the subservient and irrelevant African American Muslim woman with a far more accurate picture of their integral leadership and substantial contributions to the rise of Islam and black consciousness in the self determination movement in the United States and beyond during the Civil Rights Black Power era

Africana Islamic Studies James L. Conyers Jr., Abul Pitre, 2016-03-04 Africana Islamic Studies highlights the diverse contributions that African Americans have made to the formation of Islam in the United States It specifically focuses on the Nation of Islam and its patriarch Elijah Muhammad with regards to the African American Islamic experience Contributors explore topics such as gender education politics and sociology from the African American perspective on Islam This volume offers a unique view of the longstanding Islamic discourse in the United States and its impact on the American cultural landscape
