Schuh, 2008-07-07 This is Mike s very unique book where he has the main character a Hillybilly moonshiner writing poetry Poems that portray the life he lives as well as the life style of his hillybilly friends He has many tales about his daily life his dog his cap and his gun and of cause his moonshine drinking and his very run down home which he is so proud to say But It s Mine YES It is all his but get the book then you will find that you are thanking him for sharing it Whose Art is It? Jane Kramer, 1994 Whose Art Is It is the story of sculptor John Ahearn a white artist in a black and Hispanic neighborhood of the South Bronx and of the people he cast for a series of public sculptures commissioned for an intersection outside a police station Jane Kramer telling this story raises one of the most urgent questions of our time How do we live in a society we share with people who are often by their own definitions different Ahearn s subjects were not the best of the neighborhood They were a junkie a hustler and a street kid Their images sparked a controversy throughout the community and New York itself over issues of white representations of people of color and the appropriateness of particular images as civic art The sculptures cast in bronze and painted were up for only five days before Ahearn removed them This compelling narrative raises questions about community and public art policies about stereotypes and multiculturalism With wit drama sympathy and circumspection Kramer draws the reader into the multicultural debate challenging our assumptions about art image and their relation to community Her portrait of the South Bronx takes the argument to its grass roots provocative surprising in its contradictions and complexities and not at all easy to resolve Accompanied by an introduction by Catharine R Stimpson exploring the issues of artistic freedom political correctness and multiculturalism Whose Art Is It is a lively and accessible introduction to the ongoing debate on
