The Riders Come Out at Night Ali Winston, Darwin BondGraham, 2024-03-12 The Riders Come Out at Night is the culmination of more than twenty one years of fearless reporting Ali Winston and Darwin BondGraham shine a light on the The Riders a squad of sadistic Oakland cops whose disregard for their oath to protect and serve is on full tragic and infuriating display The authors trace the history of Oakland since its inception through the lens of the city's police department from the Palmer Raids McCarthyism and civil rights struggle the Black Panthers and the crack era up to Oakland

s present day revival This is the story of one police department and one city but it s also a history of American policing and a look at where it s headed The book relays the collective experiences of Oaklanders from a wide eyed rookie cop realizing the depth of his superiors depravity to two attorneys hell bent on seeing reform implemented despite the obstacles thrown in their way by a rotating cast of obstinate police chiefs and politicians to the victims of OPD brutality who truly illustrate the consequences of an unchecked police department one that chose to prey upon instead of protect citizens Back cover

Re-imagining Language and Literature for the 21st Century International Federation for Modern Languages and Literatures. Congress,2005 In 28 essays selected from the proceedings of the XXII International Congress of FILLM held at Assumption University Bangkok scholars and teachers of languages and literatures have noted bemoaned and analyzed the waning influence of the humanities to varying degrees They have raised questions offered solutions and vigorously defended their languages and literatures often in no uncertain terms not as a politically correct thing to do but as a human obligation The papers presented here are true to the spirit of the Congress from the moment of the keynote address to what followed in a spontaneous outbreak of voices from scholars of more than 70 universities throughout the world For the first time in an international congress scholars have described with great sensitivity many languages and literatures often considered the periphery in a sincere attempt to understand the other thus making a passionate plea for inclusion in the umbrella of the world s languages and literatures With contributions by keynote speaker and authority on Comparative Literature Gayatri Spivak USA and plenary speakers Vridhagiri Ganeshan India Roger Sell Finland Antoine Compagnon France and Chetana Nagavajara Thailand this volume is of immense interest to scholars and teachers of languages and literatures the world over
