Khatib,2021-04-13 A narrative meditation on joint nonviolence opening a window to the questions of power multiple narratives and imagination that touch on struggles for justice everywhere As a Palestinian youth Sulaiman Khatib encountered the occupation in his village and attempted to fight back stabbing an Israeli Imprisoned at the age of 14 he began a process of political and spiritual transformation still unfolding today In a book he asked Penina Eilberg Schwartz an American Jew to write and based on years of conversation between them Khatib shares how his activism became deeply rooted in the belief that we must ground all work from dialogue to direct action to healing in recognition of the history and humanity of the other He reveals how he became convinced that Palestinian freedom can flourish alongside Jewish connection to the land where he was born In language that is poetic and unflinchingly honest Eilberg Schwartz and Khatib chronicle what led him to dedicate his life to joint nonviolence In his journey he encountered the deep injustice of torture witnessed the power of hunger strikes and studied Jewish history Ultimately he came to realize mutual recognition alongside a transformation of the systems that governed their lives was necessary for both Palestinians and Israelis to move forward Still as he built friendships with Israelis and resisted the occupation alongside them he could not lose sight of the great power imbalance in the relationship of all the violence and erasure still present as they dreamt forward together Intimate and political In This Place Together opens us up to the dangers and hopes of working with others across vast differences in power and experience And it opens a new space shapes a third narrative and finds another world that can exist though it s often hard to see inside this one Get It Together for College College Board,2008-06-24 A comprehensive guide for getting
