The Gourmands' Way Justin Spring, 2024-03-26 The French effect on six food and wine writers including Julia Child, M F K Fisher, Alexis Lichine, A J Liebling, Richard Olney and Alice B Toklas. During les trente glorieuses, a thirty year boom period in France between the end of World War II and the 1974 oil crisis, Paris was not only the world's most delicious, stylish and exciting tourist destination; it was also the world capital of gastronomic genius and innovation. The Gourmands' Way explores the lives and writings of six Americans who chronicled the food and wine of the glorious thirty years, paying particular attention to their individual struggles as writers, to their life circumstances and ultimately to their particular genius at sharing awareness of French food with mainstream American readers. In doing so, this group biography also tells the story of an era when America adored all things French. The group is comprised of the war correspondent A J Liebling, Alice B Toklas, Gertrude Stein's life partner who reinvented herself at seventy as a cookbook author, M F K Fisher, a sensualist and fabulist storyteller, Julia Child, a television celebrity and cookbook author, Alexis Lichine, an ambitious wine merchant and Richard Olney, a reclusive artist who reluctantly evolved into a brilliant writer on French food and wine. Together, these writer-adventurers initiated an American cultural dialogue on food that has continued to this day. Justin Spring's The Gourmands' Way is the first book ever to look at them as a group and to specifically chronicle their Paris experiences. A literary meal, both luscious and lively, and essential to understanding our vacillating love affair with the French. Kirkus Reviews starred review.
