This One Thing:

This One Thing Dan Vaughan, 2022-12-07 Acknowledged by Archbishop Tutu himself as riveting This One Thing plunges the reader into the heroic role of the late Archbishop Desmond Tutu as head of the South African Council of Churches in the overthrow of apartheid It is essentially Tutu's story told by his right hand man who relates a gripping easy to read insider's account of the significant role the South African churches played under Tutu in bringing democracy to South Africa In This One Thing the author Dan Vaughan recounts incident by incident how as the SACC with Tutu at the helm courageously and relentlessly confronted the apartheid government Tutu's courage and implacable resistance to injustice were soon to earn him the Nobel Peace Prize The inside story around this is also told in detail Vaughan remembers their many encounters on their later travels to Haiti Colombia the USA Northern Ireland and the Sudan amongst others as Tutu crisscrossed the globe in the earlier years of this century with his message of peace The writer blends his up close account of Tutu with his own story of discovery from indifference to his country's racism to seeing his faith dramatically transform as he journeyed the long road with Tutu All told a gripping read
