

An abstract landscape painting with a palette of green, yellow, orange, red, and blue. The top half features a green hillside with white, vertical, brushstroke-like elements. The middle section is a light, hazy area where the title is placed. The bottom half shows a red foreground with blue and green patches, suggesting a body of water or a field.

Beautiful War James Douglas Davis, 2010 Beautiful War explores the interdependent political linguistic and erotic registers of lesbian feminism in Monique Wittig s novels querying in particular how they function collectively to destabilize male hegemony and heterosexism Beginning with the assertion that Wittig expressly dismantles the Classical veneration of la belle femme in order to create an agent more capable of social change la femme belliqueuse the author traces the permutations of violence through her four novels L Opoanax Les Gu rill res Le

Corps Lesbien and Virgile Non and examines the relevance of brutality to Wittig's feminist agenda Drawing on literary criticism intellectual and political history queer theory and feminist theory in his readings of the primary texts the author argues that Wittig's oeuvre constitutes a progressive textual actualization of paradigm shifts toward gender parity and a permanent banishment of the primacy of male and heterosexist political and sexual discourse Fallen Among Reformers Professor Janet Lee, 2020-06-01 Fallen Among Reformers focuses on Stella Miles Franklin's New Woman protest literature written during her time in Chicago with the National Women's Trade Union League 1906-1915 This time away from literary pursuits enriched Franklin's literary productivity and provided a feminist social justice ethics which shaped her writing Close readings of Franklin's mostly unpublished short stories plays and novels contextualises them in the personal politics of her everyday life and historicises them in the socio-economic and literary realities of early twentieth-century Australia and United States themes embedded in broader cultural patterns of socialism pacifism and feminism Paratextuality in Anglophone and Hispanophone Poems in the US Press, 1855-1901 Ayendy Bonifacio, 2024-04-30 Drawing examples from over 200 English language and Spanish language newspapers and periodicals published between January 1855 and October 1901 Paratextuality in Anglophone and Hispanophone Poems in the US Press 1855-1901 argues that nineteenth-century newspaper poems are inherently paratextual The paratextual situation of many newspaper poems their links to surrounding textual items and discourses their editorialisation through circulation the way poems were altered from newspaper to newspaper and their association and disassociation with certain celebrity bylines editors and newspaper titles enabled contemporaneous poetic value and taste that in the mid to late nineteenth century were not only sentimental Romantic and or genteel In addition to these important categories for determining a good and bad poem poetic taste and value were determined Bonifacio argues via arbitrary consequences of circulation paratextualisation typesetter error and editorial convenience Post-war Women's Writing in German Chris Weedon, 1997-03-01 Women in the Federal Republic the former GDR Switzerland and Austria have initiated a remarkable literary movement especially after 1968 which is also attracting growing attention elsewhere Informed by critical feminist and literary theory this broad-ranging collection the first of its kind examines the history of these writings in the context of the social and political developments in the respective countries It combines survey chapters with detailed studies of prominent authors whose work is often unavailable in English

The Routledge Research Companion to Popular Romance Fiction Jayashree Kamblé, Eric Murphy Selinger, Hsu-Ming Teo, 2020-08-11 Popular romance fiction constitutes the largest segment of the global book market Bringing together an international group of scholars The Routledge Research Companion to Popular Romance Fiction offers a ground-breaking exploration of this global genre and its remarkable readership In recognition of the diversity of the form the Companion provides a history of the genre an overview of disciplinary approaches to studying romance fiction and critical analyses of important subgenres themes and topics It also highlights new and understudied avenues of inquiry for future research in this vibrant and still emerging field The first systematic comprehensive resource on romance fiction this Companion will be invaluable to students and scholars and accessible to romance readers The Routledge Companion to World Literature and World History May Hawas,2018-04-19 The Routledge Companion to World Literature and World History is a comprehensive and engaging volume combining essays from historians and literary academics to create a space for productive cross cultural encounters between the two fields In addition to the 27 essays the Companion includes general introductions from two of the leading scholars of history and literature David Damrosch and Patrick Manning as well as personal testimonies from artists working in the area and editorials asking provocative questions The volume includes sections on People with essays looking at World Literature Intellectual Commerce Religion language and war and Indigenous ethnography Networks and methods examining maps geography morality and the crises of world literature Transformations including essays on race colonialism and the non human Interdisciplinary and groundbreaking this volume brings to light various ways in which scholars of literature and history analyse assimilate or reveal the intellectual heritage of the past at the same moment as they try consciously to deal with an unending amount of new information and an awareness of global connections and discrepancies Including work from leading academics in the field as well as newer voices the Companion is ideal for students and scholars alike This Is Her Century Doaa Abdelhafez Hamada,2014-07-24 This book is a study of the works of Margaret Walker 1915 1998 in chronological order in the social and intellectual context of twentieth century America Walker is a writer who is known by name for her works however very little criticism is written on her literary contributions This is the first monograph on Walker s work by a single author and is an attempt to establish the importance of Walker s representation of twentieth century America against its critical obscurity This book shows that Walker is a woman writer who slipped to the margins of the African American literary canon for improper reasons Material presented in this study is based on research on available criticism published on Walker s work It is also based on research on the social intellectual and political aspects of twentieth century America This text also incorporates information derived from the researcher s close reading of Walker s work It argues that issues of race gender and class are always connected in twentieth century America and in Walker s work as reflective of this century in America It also argues that Walker s feminist consciousness develops from one work to another until it reaches its peak in her later poetry Celebrity and the Feminist Blockbuster Anthea Taylor,2017-02-21 In the first book length study of celebrity feminism Anthea Taylor convincingly argues that the most visible feminists in the mediasphere have been authors of bestselling works of non fiction feminist blockbusters Celebrity and The Feminist Blockbuster explores how the authors of these popular feminist books have shaped the public identity of modern feminism in some cases over many decades Maintaining a distinction between women who are famous because of their feminism and those who later add feminism to their brand Taylor contends that Western celebrity feminism as a political mode of public subjectivity cannot in any simple way be seen as homologous with other forms of stardom

Moving deftly from the 1960s to the present focusing on how feminist authors have actively worked to manufacture their public personas she demonstrates that the blockbuster remains crucial to feminist celebrification but is now often augmented with digital media Advancing celebrity studies by placing the figure of the feminist front and centre Celebrity and the Feminist Blockbuster is essential reading for all those interested in gender popular feminism and the politics of renown

The Pauline Doctrine of Male Headship James E. Bordwine, 2009-05-01 I am not aware of a comprehensive volume on the Pauline Doctrine of Male Headship authored by an active pastor who must live with the practical applications of that ancient and ever valid teaching Dr Bordwine an active pastor thus serves the Christian community by providing a book which both interacts so well and widely with differing opinions and which also clearly states the meaning of the biblical text and its significance for the church of this age and the days that follow I am therefore very thankful for its publication and heartily commend it George W Knight III President The Council on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood Lives Together/Worlds Apart Suzanna Danuta Walters, 2023-11-15 In the 1940s film Now Voyager Bette Davis plays a daughter struggling against her mother's stifling repression Nearly fifty years later in the Hollywood saga Postcards from the Edge Shirley MacLaine as a neglectful and bossy mother inflicts untold psychological pain on her daughter played by Meryl Streep These dramas of conflict and the ambivalent struggle for separation have been central to popular images of mothers and daughters in the last half century in the U S Walters boldly challenges these dichotomies and proposes an innovative and multilayered understanding of the cultural construction of the mother daughter relationship In a discussion of popular media ranging from themes of maternal martyrdom to maternal malevolence Walters shows that since World War II mainstream culture has generally represented the mother daughter relationship as one of never ending conflict and thus promoted an ideology of separation as necessary to the daughter's emancipation and maturity This ideological move is placed in a social context of the anti woman backlash of the early post war period and the renewed anti feminism of the Reagan and Bush years Walters uses exceptions to mainstream imagery films such as A Tree Grows in Brooklyn television shows like Maude novels like The Joy Luck Club to offer evidence of alternative traditions and paradigms Timely and vividly argued Lives Together Worlds Apart makes a brilliant contribution to discussions of popular culture and feminism In the 1940s film Now Voyager Bette Davis plays a daughter struggling against her mother's stifling repression Nearly fifty years later in the Hollywood saga Postcards from the Edge Shirley MacLaine as a neglectful and bossy mother in Reading by Numbers Katherine Bode, 2012-07-01 Reading by Numbers Recalibrating the Literary Field is the first book to use digital humanities strategies to integrate the scope and methods of book and publishing history with issues and debates in literary studies By mining visualising and modelling data from AustLit an online bibliography of Australian literature that leads the world in its comprehensiveness and scope this study revises established conceptions of Australian literary history presenting new ways of writing about literature and publishing and a new direction for digital humanities research The case studies in this book offer insight into a wide range of features of the literary field including trends and cycles in the gender of novelists the formation of fictional genres and literary canons and the relationship of Australian literature to other national literatures
