Unpleasantries Frank Soos,2016-06-01 Even from upside down in his recently flipped truck Frank Soos reveals himself to be ruminative grappling with the limitations of language to express the human condition Moving quickly skiing in the dark or taking long summer bike rides on Alaska highways Soos combines an active physical life with a dark and difficult interior existence wrestling the full span of thinking and doing onto the page with surprising lightness His meditations move from fly fishing in dangerously swift Alaska rivers to memories of the liars and dirty joke tellers of his small town Virginia childhood revealing insights in new encounters and old preoccupations Soos writes about pain and despair aging his divorce his father s passing regret the loss of home and the fear of death But in the process of confronting these dark topics he is full of wonder As he writes at the end of an account of almost drowning Bruised but whole I was alive alive alive Stories Wanting Only to be Heard Stephen Corey,Douglas Carlson,David Ingle,2012 Founded at the University of Georgia in 1947 and published there ever since The Georgia Review has become one of America s most highly regarded journals of arts and letters Never stuffy and never shallow The Georgia Review seeks a broad audience of intellectually open and curious readers and strives to give those readers rich content that invites and sustains repeated attention and consideration Pulitzer Prize winners and never before published writers are equals during the journal s manuscript evaluation process whose goal is to identify and print stories poems and essays that promise to be of lasting merit The year 2012 marks the sixty fifth anniversary of The Georgia Review and Stories Wanting Only to Be Heard will acknowledge that milestone by presenting a selection of the remarkable short fiction published across the decades The collection includes the work of well known writers many of whom were not yet so well known when first selected for publication by The Georgia Review and also highlights compelling work from writers whose names may not be as familiar but whose stories are equally compelling and memorable The stories collected here each one vivid distinctive and worthwhile to read stand as testament to the significance of The Georgia Review's decades of work to identify and promote writing of exceptional quality Publication of this book was made possible in part by the President's Venture Fund through generous gifts of the University of Georgia Partners

I Am No One You Know Joyce Carol Oates, 2009-10-13 I Am No One You Know contains nineteen startling stories that bear witness to the remarkably varied lives of Americans of our time In Fire a troubled young wife discovers a rare radiant happiness in an adulterous relationship In Curly Red a girl makes a decision to reveal a family secret and changes her life irrevocably In The Girl with the Blackened Eye selected for The Best American Mystery Stories 2001 a girl pushed to an even greater extreme of courage and desperation manages to survive her abduction by a serial killer And in Three Girls two adventuresome NYU undergraduates seal their secret love by following and protecting Marilyn Monroe in disguise at Strand Used Books on a snowy evening in 1956 These vividly rendered portraits of women men and children testify to Oates's compassion for the mysterious and luminous resources of the human spirit

In the Basement of the Ivory Tower Professor X, 2011-03-31 A caustic expose of the deeply state of our colleges America's most expensive Ponzi scheme What drives a former English major with a creative writing degree several unpublished novels three kids and a straining marriage to take a job as a night teacher at a second rate college An unaffordable mortgage As his house starts falling apart in every imaginable way Professor X grabs first one then two jobs teaching English 101 and 102 composition and literature at a small private college and a local community college He finds himself on the front lines of America's academic crisis It's quite an education This is the story of what he learns about his struggling pupils about the college system a business more bent on its own financial targets than the wellbeing of its students about the classics he rediscovers and about himself Funny wry self deprecating and a provocative indictment of our failing schools In the Basement of the Ivory Tower is both a brilliant academic satire and a poignant account of one teacher's seismic frustration and unlikely salvation as his real estate woes catapult him into a subprime crisis of an altogether more human nature

Class, Please Open Your Comics Matthew L. Miller, 2015-05-07 Comics and sequential art are increasingly in use in college classrooms Multimodal multimedia and often collaborative the graphic narrative format has entered all kinds of subject areas and its potential as a teaching tool is still being realized This collection of new essays presents best practices for using comics in various educational settings beginning with the basics Contributors explain the need for teachers to embrace graphic novels Multimodal composition is demonstrated by the use of comics Strategies are offered for teachers who have struggled with weak visual literacy skills among students Student generated comics are discussed with several examples The teaching of postmodern theories and practices through comics is covered An appendix features assignment sheets so teachers can jump right in with proven exercises

Transgressions Ed McBain, 2005-05 Forge Books is proud to present an amazing collection of novellas compiled by New York Times bestselling author Ed McBain Transgressions is a quintessential classic of never before published tales from today's very best novelists featuring Walking Around Money by Donald E. Westlake. The master of the comic mystery is back with an all new novella featuring hapless crook John Dortmunder who gets involved in a crime that supposedly no one will ever know happened. Naturally when something is too good to be true it usually is, and Dortmunder is going to get to the bottom of this caper before he's left holding the bag. Hostages by Anne Perry. The bestselling historical mystery author has written a tale of beautiful yet still savage Ireland today. In their eternal struggle for freedom there is about to be a changing of the guard in the Irish Republican Army. Yet for some old habits and honor still die hard even at gunpoint. The Corn Maiden by Joyce Carol Oates. When a fourteen year old girl is abducted in a small New York town the crime starts a spiral of destruction and despair as only this master of psychological suspense could write it. Archibald Lawless. Anarchist at Large. Walking the Line by Walter Mosley. Felix Orlean is a New York City journalism student who needs a job to cover his rent. An ad in the paper leads him to Archibald Lawless and a descent into a shadow world where no one and nothing is as it first seems. The Resurrection Man by Sharyn McCrumb. During America's first century doctors used any means necessary to advance their craft including dissecting corpses. Sharyn McCrumb brings the South of the 1850s to life in this story of a man who is assigned to dig up bodies to help those that are still alive. Merely Hate by Ed McBain. When a string of Muslim cabdrivers are killed and the evidence points to another ethnic group the detectives of the 87th Precinct must hunt down a killer before the city explodes in violence. The Things They Left Behind by Stephen King. In the wake of the worst disaster on American soil one man is coming to terms with the aftermath of the Twin Towers when he begins finding the things they left behind. The Ransome Women by John Farris. A young and beautiful starving artist is looking to catch a break when her idol the reclusive portraitist John Ransome offers her a lucrative year long modeling contract. But how long will her excitement last when she discovers the fate shared by all Ransome's past subjects. Forever by Jeffery Deaver. Talbot Simms is an unusual cop. He's a statistician with the Westbrook County Sheriff Department. When two wealthy couples in the county commit suicide one right after the other he thinks that it isn't suicide it's murder and he's going to find how who was behind it and how they did it. Keller's Adjustment by Lawrence Sanders. Everyone's favorite hit man is back in MWA. Grand Master Lawrence Sanders' novella where the philosophical Keller deals out philosophy and murder on a meandering road trip from one end of the America to the other.
