Looking back at this event with an aged eye, an eye steeped in a broth of maturity and experience, I find that I am still embarrassed. My embarrassment today, however, stems from the realization that never was I so cruel and heartless as I was at that auction some thirty years ago. Often do I wonder how that girl must have felt as the jeers and catcalls of an undisciplined mob cascaded around her. I fervently hope that I shall never meet this girl face to face in the present. That would surely be the most embarrassing moment of my life.

Household Horror Marc Olivier, 2020-02-11 A scholar examines 14 everyday objects featured in horror films and how they manifest their power and speak to society s fears Take a tour of the house where a microwave killed a gremlin a typewriter made Jack a dull boy a sewing machine fashioned Carrie s prom dress and houseplants might kill you while you sleep In Household Horror Marc Olivier highlights the wonder fear and terrifying dimension of objects in horror cinema Inspired by object oriented ontology and the nonhuman turn in philosophy Olivier places objects in film on par with humans arguing for example that a sleeper sofa is as much the star of Sisters as Margot Kidder that The Exorcist is about a possessed bed and that Rosemary s Baby is a conflict between herbal shakes and prenatal vitamins Household Horror reinvigorates horror film criticism by investigating the unfathomable being of objects as seemingly benign as remotes radiators refrigerators and dining tables Olivier questions

what Hitchcock's Psycho tells us about shower curtains What can we learn from Freddie Krueger's greatest accomplice the mattress Room by room Olivier considers the dark side of fourteen household objects to demonstrate how the objects in these films manifest their own power and connect with specific cultural fears and concerns Provides a lively and highly original contribution to horror studies As a work on cinema it introduces the reader to films that may be less well known to casual fans and scholars more conspicuously it returns to horror staples gleefully reanimating works that one might otherwise assume had been critically done to death Psycho The Exorcist The Shining Allan Cameron University of Auckland From Testing to Assessment Clifford Hill, Kate Parry, 2014-09-19 From Testing to Assessment English as an International Language provides a critical review of conventional and alternative approaches to the assessment of English literacy skills in various parts of the world It presents empirical studies conducted in three major settings in countries such as Japan and Brazil where English functions as the language of international commerce in multilingual countries such as Nigeria and Zimbabwe where English is the national language of education and government and in such countries as Canada the United Kingdom and the United States where English is the dominant language The book opens with a discussion of language assessment in relation to debates about the nature of literacy it concludes with a discussion of policy implications which is grounded in literacy theory as well as in practical constraints such as available human and material resources
