Daulton, 2024-07-09 Soul mates separated by time Destiny intervenes Undercover American operative Rodger Ramsey never anticipated encountering a runaway bride amidst the vast salt flats of Bolivia's Salar de Uyuni The alluring woman triggers his protective instincts but her insistence that she's traveled two hundred years through time tests his patience It's 1963 and he's a man of science not fantasy Forced into an arranged marriage Leonora Harris flees her husband's home and stumbles through an underground vortex Now adrift in a vibrant yet unfamiliar land she seeks solace in the arms of a captivating stranger Passion ignites and the notion of returning to eighteenth century England fades into oblivion Time is not on their side Rodger's duty calls him back to the States and Leonora is trapped without a passport How will they stay together or will she survive in this strange new world alone Book 2 the Prequel in the steamy Ramseys in Time series Second edition Newly revised edited and extended Film and Ethics Jacqui Miller, 2014-08-26 This book forms part of the multi disciplinary

Studies in Ethics Series from Liverpool Hope University It explores the slipperiness of ethics as a concept and demonstrates the multiplicity of intellectual inquiry within contemporary Film Studies At first glance ethics is not necessarily a subject conventionally associated with film Film is often regarded as a form of lowbrow popular culture either offering bland entertainment or deliberately setting out to shock or more cynically generate box office revenue through gratuitous inclusion of sex and violence Certainly there have always been a minority of films based on the stereotypically ethical subject of religion but these have often generated the most controversy from the studio system decree that it was blasphemous to represent the corporeal body of Christ to the furore surrounding Martin Scorsese's The Last Temptation of Christ 1988 This book shows that from the silent era to the present day film has been inherently concerned with ethical issues In this light the definition of ethics that informs the volume and is taken as the starting point of each of the chapters is the notion of personal or institutional motivation most usually because a character or industry figure makes a decision or choice based on their own moral or ethical code Once this is defined the ethical dimension to films is immediately evident This book takes as its central theme the difficulty of decisions refracted through personal ethical codes and thus recognises that what counts as ethics or morality is always subjective Some of the chapters explore films which take conventionally good ethical standpoints others investigate why bad decisions were made at least one explores the celebration of practices invoking popular disgust but all the contributions study ethical decisions within film that represent the strongly felt convictions of those involved and moreover address aspects of filmmaking which force the spectator to be an active and reciprocal participant in the creation of meaning thus implicitly acknowledging that ethics are subjective and in perpetual flux rather than fixed objective truths
