

The Three Little Pigs

Narrator: Once upon a time there were three little pigs who went out into the world to seek their fortune. The first little pig set off through the fields. He met a man carrying a bundle of straw.

Pig 1: Please sir, will you give me some straw so that I can build myself a house?

Man: As much as you need, little pig.

Narrator: The man gave the straw to the little pig, and the little pig built himself a straw house. In a little while, a wolf came along and knocked on the door.

Wolf: Little pig, little pig, let me come in.

Pig 1: No, no, not by the hair of my chinny, chin, chin, I will not let you in!

Wolf: Then I'll huff, and I'll puff, and I'll blow your house down!

Narrator: And he huffed, and he puffed, and he blew the house down.

Narrator: The second little pig went up the hill to the woods. There he met a man carrying a bundle of sticks.

Pig 2: Please sir, will you give me some sticks so that I can build myself a house?

Man: As many as you need, little pig.

Narrator: The man gave the sticks to the little pig, and the little pig built himself a wooden house. In a little while, a wolf came along and knocked on the door.

Wolf: Little pig, little pig, let me come in.

Pig 2: No, no, not by the hair of my chinny, chin, chin, I will not let you in!

Wolf: Then I'll huff, and I'll puff, and I'll blow your house down!

Narrator: And he huffed, and he puffed, and he blew the house down.

Mizelle, 2012-01-01 Known as much for their pink curly tails and pudgy snouts as their low brow choice of diet and habitat pigs are prevalent in popular culture from the Three Little Pigs to Miss Piggy to Babe Today there are more than one billion pigs on the planet and there are countless representations of pigs and piggishness throughout the world s cultures In Pig Brett Mizelle provides a richly illustrated and compelling look at the long complicated relationship between humans and these highly intelligent sociable animals Mizelle traces the natural and cultural history of the pig focusing on the contradictions between our imaginative representation of pigs and the real world truth of the ways in which pigs are prized for their meat used as subjects in medical research and killed in order to make hundreds of consumer products Pig begins with the evolution of the suidae animals that were domesticated in multiple regions 9 000 years ago and points toward a future where pigs and humans are even more closely intertwined as a result of biomedical breakthroughs Pig both examines the widespread art entertainment and literature that imagines human kinship with pigs and the development of modern industrial pork production In charting how humans have shaped the pig and how the pig has shaped us Mizelle focuses on the unresolved contradictions between the fiction and the reality of our relations with pigs
