Three Page Research Paper:

Youth in Prison M. A. Bortner, Linda Williams, 2012-11-12 Based on two years of intensive research in a juvenile prison this study tells the story of youths in a model program created after a class action lawsuit for inhumane and illegal practices It captures their lives inside and outside of prison from drugs gangs and criminal behaviour to the realities of families schools and neighbourhoods Drawing on experience that encompasses 20 years of juvenile justice research and policy analysis the authors scrutinize the prison s attempts to combine accountability and treatment for youths with protection for the public situating these within the larger social and political context

A Guidebook for Advanced Composition and Textual Analysis John C. Rasmussen, 2022-01-19 A Guidebook for Advanced Composition and Textual Analysis By Dr John C Rasmussen The Guidebook was designed with the non traditional student in mind It addresses the needs of those students returning to college after being out of school for some time as a result of raising a family work military or other break from the traditional four year pattern The Guidebook begins with basic composition skills and then builds on them to lead students to graduate level effectiveness Students will discover advanced composition skills are really basic skills that pay attention to additional considerations of composition Because each consideration is a step to the next students will find the road to advanced composition manageable and obtainable

Dale Fiers D. Duane Cummins, 2003 Many call A Dale Fiers the most significant figure in the Christian Church Disciples of Christ of the twentieth century Raised in a devout family his mother was ordained in Kankakee Illinois and West Palm Beach Florida Fiers went on to have major impact not only on his denomination but on American Protestantism in general particularly its approach to such social issues as missionary work and civil rights Fiers served as executive secretary of the International Convention of the Christian Church Disciples of Christ president of the United Christian Missionary Society administrative secretary of the Commission on Restructure and was the first general minister and president of the church Restructure was the process by which thousands of scattered Disciples congregations became an expression of one Church This 1960s development towers over the landscape of Disciples history like a great mountain range and Fiers looms over the era as its central figure In this biography commissioned by the Disciples of Christ Historical Society D Duane Cummins crafts a picture of a remarkable church leader and chronicles the way a significant religious body dealt with the ambivalences of its own existence how missionary work developed into less paternalistic relationships how a church struggled between attempts to minister on the local scene and throughout the world Fiers lived in Florida and remained active in Disciples affairs until his death at age ninety six in 2003
