Three Thousand Years Of Chinese Painting:

Three Thousand Years of Chinese Painting Richard M. Barnhart, Xin Yang, Nie Chongzheng, James Cahill, Hung Wu, Lang Shaojun, 1997-01-01 Written by a team of eminent international scholars this book is the first to recount the history of Chinese painting over a span of some 3000 years

Children in Chinese Art Ann Barrott Wicks, 2002-02-28 Depictions of children have had a prominent place in Chinese art since the Song period 960 1279 Yet one would be hard pressed to find any significant discussion of children in art in the historical documents of imperial China or contemporary scholarship on Chinese art Children in Chinese Art brings to the forefront themes and motifs that have crossed social boundaries for centuries but have been overlooked in scholarly treatises In this volume experts in the fields of art religion literature and history introduce and elucidate many of the issues surrounding child imagery in China including its use for didactic reinforcement of social values as well as the amuletic function of these works The introduction provides a thought provoking overview of the history of depictions of children exploring both stylistic development and the emergence of specific themes In an insightful essay China specialists combine expertise in literature and painting to propose that the focus on children in both genres during the Song is an indication of a truly humane society Skillful use of visual and textual sources from the Ming 1368 1644 and Qing 1644 1911 period explains children's games and the meaning of depictions of boys at play Gender issues are examined in an intriguing look at mothers and children in woodblock illustrations to Ming versions of the classical text Lie ni juan Depictions of the childhood of saints and sages from murals and commemorative tablets in ancient temples are considered The volume concludes with two highly original essays on child protectors and destroyers in Chinese folk religion and family portraits and their scarcity in China before the nineteenth century Contributors Ellen B Avril Catherine Barnhart Richard Barnhart Terese Tse Bartholomew Julia K Murray Ann Waltner Ann Barrott Wicks

Transforming Traditions in Modern Chinese Painting Jason C. Kuo, 2004 Modern Chinese painting embodies the constant renewal and reinvigorations of Chinese civilization amidst rebellions reforms and revolutions even if the process may appear confusing and bewildering It also demonstrates the persistence of tradition and limits of continuities and changes in modern Chinese culture Most significantly it compels us to ask several important questions in the study of modern Chinese culture How extensively can cultural tradition be re interpreted before it is subverted At what point is creative re invention an act of betrayal of tradition How has selective borrowing from Chinese tradition and foreign culture enabled modern Chinese artists to sustain themselves in the modern world By focusing on the art of Huang Pin hung 1865 1955 particularly his late work this book attempts to provide some answers to these questions

Literary Translation Research in China Roberto A. Valdeón, Youbin Zhao, 2023-05-22 This book provides an overview of the research carried out by Chinese scholars in the field of literary translation Although literary translation accounts for a small percentage of the translations produced every year the interest into its cultural and historical significance continues to attract the interest of academics notably in China The contributors to the book engage in theoretical discussions compare source and target texts discuss the role of patronage and analyze the translation of unique cultural artefacts such as Chinese calligraphy Their approaches range from the use of corpus based studies to the use of mixed quantitative and qualitative methods to compare readers views This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Linguistics Literature Translation Studies and Cultural Studies It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Perspectives Studies in Translation Theory and Practice Chinese Art Maxwell K. Hearn, Judith G. Smith, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2001 China's entry into the modern era was shaped by unprecedented internal turmoil and external pressures which brought a forceful end to two millennia of imperial rule and cultural insularity The essays in this volume offer a variety of perspectives on the impact of the West on indigenous literature architecture painting and calligraphy during this period ca 1860-1980 This book is published in conjunction with the exhibition Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Chinese Paintings from the Robert H Ellsworth Collection in The Metropolitan Museum of Art held at the museum from 30th January-19th August 2001 Women of Chinese Modern Art Doris Sung, 2023-12-31 Winner of the SECAC Award for Excellence in Scholarly Research and Publication Bringing to light the largely overlooked female participation in domestic and international art worlds this book offers the first comprehensive study of how women embroiderers traditionalist calligraphers and painters including Shen Shou Wu Xingfen Jin Taotao and members of Chinese Women's Society of Calligraphy and Painting shaped the terrain of the modern art world and gender positioning during China's important moments of social cultural transformation from empire to republic Drawing on a wealth of previously unexhibited artworks rare artist's monographs women's journals personal narratives diaries and catalogs of international expositions Doris Sung not only affirms women's significant roles as guardian and innovator of traditionalist art forms for a modern nation but she also reveals their contribution to cultural diplomacy and revaluation of Chinese artistic heritage on the international stage in the early twentieth century The Great Chinese Art Transfer Michael St. Clair, 2016-04-01 This book tells the story of how and why millions of Chinese works of art got exported to collectors and institutions in the West in particular to the United States As China's last dynasty was weakening and collapsing from 1860 into the early years of the twentieth century China's internal chaos allowed imperial and private Chinese collections to be scattered looted and sold A remarkable and varied group of Westerners entered the country had their eyes opened to centuries of Chinese creativity and gathered up paintings bronzes and ceramics as well as sculptures jades and bronzes The migration to America and Europe of China's art is one of the greatest outflows of a culture's artistic heritage in human history A good deal of the art procured by collectors and dealers some famous and others little known but all remarkable in individual ways eventually wound up in American and European museums Today some of the art still in private hands is returning to China via international auctions and aggressive purchases by Chinese millionaires Issues of Authenticity in Chinese Painting Judith G. Smith, Wen Fong, 1999 Published in conjunction with a December 1999 symposium held at the

Metropolitan Museum of Art New York and an exhibition The Artist as Collector Masterpieces of Chinese Painting from the C C Wang Family Collection Twelve contributions give dissenting opinions regarding a book recently published by The Museum titled Along the Riverbank which seeks to attribute the painting called Riverbank to the 10th century landscape master Dong Yuan an attribution that would call for the rewriting of early Chinese painting history This volume contains 239 bandw illustrations to support the contributors efforts to explain their opinions Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Zhao Mengfu Shane McCausland, Mengfu Zhao, 2011-01-01 Zhao Mengfu has enormous significance for Chinese art history This work presents a new synthetic portrait of the artist s development from the 1280s to his death in 1322 and evaluates his pivotal role in the social political context in Yuan China as well as the development of the artist s self consciousness Shane McCausland s study features detailed interpretations of pictorial forms in light of historical changes and close readings of critical colophons many of which are appended to artworks but neglected as visual sources These readings are meant to stimulate visual analysis of the oeuvre as well as debate about the use of Tang 618 907 and other period modes as models for the Yuan renaissance The book challenges stereotypes portraying Zhao Mengfu as a traitor or careerist The historical background of dynastic change and Mongol rule is treated in a revisionist manner that aims to contextualize the traditional Chinese hostility towards Zhao Mengfu as a Yuan scholar official The concern here is for his development in the context of Mongol rule as a Chinese scholar artist This book will be a must for scholars curators and other specialists in Chinese painting and calligraphy especially those focusing on Yuan dynasty and literati painting Shane McCausland is a lecturer in the history of Chinese art in the Department of Art and Archaeology at SOAS University of London

Picturing Technology in China Peter J. Golas, 2014-12-01 Although the history of technological and scientific illustrations is a well established field in the West scholarship on the much longer Chinese experience is still undeveloped This work by Peter Golas is a short illustrated overview tracing the subject to pre Han inscriptions but focusing mainly on the Song Yuan Ming and Qing dynasties His main theme is that technological drawings developed in a different way in China from in the West largely because they were made by artists rather than by specialist illustrators or practitioners of technology He examines the techniques of these artists their use of painting woodblock prints and the book and what their drawings reveal about changing technology in agriculture industry architecture astronomical military and other spheres The text is elegantly written and the images about 100 in all are carefully chosen This is likely to appeal to both scholars and general readers Hawai'i Reader in Traditional Chinese Culture Victor H. Mair, Nancy Shatzman Steinhardt, Paul R. Goldin, 2005-01-31 The Hawai i Reader in Traditional Chinese Culture is a collection of more than ninety primary sources all but a few of which were translated specifically for this volume of cultural significance from the Bronze Age to the turn of the twentieth century They take into account virtually every aspect of traditional culture including sources from the non Sinitic ethnic minorities Paradise and Plumage Robert N. Linrothe, 2004 Songs of Nature John Sallis, 2020-02-04 This latest philosophical text by John Sallis is inspired by the work of contemporary Chinese painter Cao Jun It carries out a series of philosophical reflections on nature art and music by taking up Cao Jun s art and thought with a focus on questions of the elemental Sallis s reflections are not a matter of simply relating art works to philosophical thought as theoretical insights and developments run throughout Cao Jun s writings and inform many of his artistic works Sallis maintains abundant points of contact with Chinese philosophical traditions but also with Western philosophy In these reflections on art Sallis poses a critique of mimesis and considers the relation of painting to music He affirms his conviction that the artist must always turn to nature especially as reflections on the earth and sky delimit the scale and place of what is human Full color illustrations enhance this provocative and penetrating text The Art of the Chinese Picture-Scroll Shane McCausland, 2023-10-25 The first extended history of the Chinese picture scroll The Chinese picture scroll a long horizontal painting or calligraphic work has been China s pre eminent aesthetic form throughout the last two millennia This first history of the picture scroll explores its extraordinary longevity and adaptability to social political and technological change The book describes what the picture scroll demands of a viewer how China s artists grappled with its cultural power and how collectors and connoisseurs left their marks on scrolls for later generations to judge Humanities ,1998
