Through The Window Kinship And Elopement In Bosnia Herzegovina:

Through the Window Keith Doubt, 2024-03-31 This book is not about war crimes crimes against humanity genocide evil or the killing of a society It is about a cultural heritage something vital to a society as a society something that was not killed in the previous war something that is resilient Through the Window brings an original perspective to folklore of Bosnians at a certain period of time and the differences and similarities of the three main ethnic groups in Bosnia and Herzegovina It examines the transethnic character of cultural heritage against divisions that dominate their tragic recent past The monograph focuses in particular on customs shared by different ethnic groups specifically elopement and affinal visitation The elopement is a transformative rite of passage where an unmarried girl becomes a married woman The affinal visitation which follows is a confirmatory ceremony where ritualized customs between families establish in lawships These customs reflect a transethnic heritage shared by people in Bosnia as a national group including Bosniaks Serbs and Croats

Ethnic and National Identity in Bosnia-Herzegovina Keith Doubt, Adnan Tufekcic, 2019-07-27 In Ethnic and National Identity in Bosnia Herzegovina Keith Doubt and Adnan Tufekcic analyze Bosnian social organization cultural character and boundary maintenance Doubt and Tufekcic argue that modern Bosnians live in a polyethnic society defined by a set of marriage and kinship practices that cross ethnic and national identity divisions This book provides readers with a clearer understanding of Bosnian identity and the role of ethnic groups in an increasingly complex society

Bosnian Authors in a European Window Keith Doubt, 2023-12-18 The study compares three Bosnian authors with three European titans The poet Mak Dizdar to Homer the novelist Me a Selimovi to Fyodor Dostoevsky and the novelist Ivo Andri to Leo Tolstoy The purpose is to move the appreciation of the writing of the most important Bosnian writers of the 20th century closer to the European literary community and to the wholeness of the literary phenomenon Secondary literature on the Bosnian authors is too narrow focusing on their ethnic heritages and the Balkan milieu in which they write and missing something essential to a critical appreciation of their works The study creates not only affinities but more importantly amiti s between the authors The discipline of comparative literature reveals what is missing in the secondary literature namely a vision of the literary universe inclusive and comprehensive

Sociocide Keith Doubt, 2020-11-03 Wars have a destructive impact on society The violence in the first case is domicile in the second urbicide in the third genocide and in the fourth the book introduces a neologism sociocide the killing of society Through the lens of this neologism Keith Doubt provides persuasive evidence of the social political and human consequences of today s wars in countries such as Bosnia and Iraq Sociocide Reflections on Today s Wars rigorously formulates develops and applies the notion of sociocide as a Weberian ideal type to contemporary wars Drawing upon sociology anthropology philosophy and literature Doubt analyzes war crimes scapegoating and torture and concludes by examining capitalism in the face of the coronavirus pandemic as a sociocidal force Embedded in the humanistic tradition and informed by empirical science this book provides a clear conceptual account of today s wars one that is objective and moral critical and humanistic      The Shaping Shaikh Dejan Aždajić, 2020-01-20 Islam is more than a system of rigid doctrines and normative principles It is a diverse mosaic of subjective often contradictory interpretations and discrepant applications that prohibit a narrow one dimensional approach This book argues that to uncover this complex reality and achieve a more accurate understanding of Islam as a lived religion it is imperative to consider Islam from the point of view of human beings who practice their faith Consequently this book provides an important contribution through a detailed ethnographic study of two contemporary Sufi communities Although both groups shared much in common there was a fundamental almost perplexing range of theological convictions and ritual implementations This book explores the mechanism that accounts for such diversity arguing for a direct correlation between Sufi multiformity and the agency of the spiritual leader the Shaikh Empirical research regarding the authority by which Shaikhs subjectively generate legitimate adaptations that shape the contours of religious belief are lacking This study is significant because it focuses on how leadership operates in Sufism highlighting the primacy of the Shaikh in the selection and appropriation of inherited norms

Lola's War Olivera Simic, 2023-06-01 This longitudinal study is based on the story of Lola who was gang raped during the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina in 1992 At the time she was in a detention camp with her young children Only one of Lola's several perpetrators was convicted but his sentence of six years of imprisonment has never been actioned by the Bosnian judiciary Lola's rapist is still free and she lives in continual fear that he will retaliate against her and her children for her role in his trial

A Muslim Minority in Turkey Lejla Voloder, 2018-07-30 Although Turkey is a secular state it is often characterised as a Muslim country In her latest book Lejla Voloder provides an engaging and revealing study of a Bosniak community in Turkey one of the Muslim minorities actually recognised by the state in Turkey Under what circumstances have they resettled to Turkey How do they embrace Islam How does one live as a Bosniak a Turkish citizen a mother a father a member of a household and as one guided by Islam The first book based on fieldwork to detail the lives of members of the Bosnian and Bosniak diaspora in Turkey A Muslim Minority in Turkey makes a unique contribution to the study of Muslim minority groups in Turkey and the Middle East
