He and his partner Philo Hart are suspicious about her sudden arrival and will do whatever it takes to protect their anonymity and their research. Layla convinced that Mikael has found a way to cure terminal illnesses in children won't be brushed off with platitudes and half truths. When she refuses to go quietly, Mikael invites her to stay confident that he and Philo will come up with something to satisfy her curiosity without revealing their shifter abilities or the true nature of their work. But they don't factor in the potent feline attraction that sizzles between the three of them from the get go.
