Journal of Qualitative Education ,2009-05 Harvest of research outcomes to confirm achievement of the millennium development goals Simeon O. Jekayinfa,2017-09-15 In 2000 the leaders of member states of the United Nations adopted the Millennium Declaration which set out a series of clear commitments goals and targets to achieve Human Development These ambitious goals were subsequently refined into eight Millennium Development Goals MDGs designed to provide a framework for accountability donor coordination and resource mobilization The MDGs are Eradicate extreme poverty and hunger achieve universal primary education promote gender equality and empower women reduce child mortality improve maternal health combat HIV AIDS malaria and other diseases ensure environmental sustainability and develop a global partnership for development The first seven of these Goals are concerned with outcomes identifying the progress towards certain standards of human well being and decent living which should be achieved globally and nationally by 2015 The eighth Goal is concerned with relationships identifying various aspects of a global partnership for development which must be forged to support the realization of these poverty reduction human development and environmental sustainability standards The MDGs provide opportunities to start working from real life development problems Addressing these problems requires multidisciplinary approaches that combine the natural sciences the life sciences and technical approaches with social science approaches The challenge is to integrate social economic political and institutional concerns into research strategy To be able to achieve this there is a need to establish a linking pin between research policy and practice in Nigeria The aim of such a linking pin would be to synthesize research outcomes on specific MDGrelated topics and to translate these into implications for policy and decision making through easily accessible gathering where individual stakeholders can air their views The articles contained in this book address research outcomes from stakeholders Sociologists Economists Agronomists Agricultural Engineers Civil Engineers Environmental Scientists and Engineers Geographers Geologists Microbiologists Medical Practitioners Policy Makers Educationists etc to confirm achievement of Millennium Development Goals in Nigeria and other neighboring countries The Mirror Margaret Safo (Mrs.),2006-09-09 African Journal of Studies in Education ,2009-05 The Education of Diverse Student Populations Guofang Wan,2008-06-19 This book takes up the challenge of examining the thorniest educational issue from a global perspective It contributes to the evidence based conversation among policy makers educators and researchers around the world about what works to improve the education outcomes and what can make a bigger difference for the education of diverse students The eleven countries included the United Kingdom Austria Canada the United States South Africa Ghana China Singapore Malaysia Australia and New Zealand are unique and yet overlap in the sense that they all face similar challenges of teaching diverse students The authors being education and cultural insiders discuss country specific policies efforts and best practices in the education of diverse students share stories of success and failure and explore current best practices from global social political and economic perspectives Built on previous theories and research it describes diverse students experiences in the global and information age and searches for effective policies and practices that help these students to perform better in school and in life Readers are forced to step outside of their own experiences and commonly held beliefs about education Conscious recognition that there are other ways of doing things may result in new approaches that we have not explored before We hope the insights lessons and conclusions drawn from examining this pressing education issue from a global perspective will help nations to better understand and deal with it in their own educational system Refocusing Research in Science, Technology, and Mathematics (STM) Education Science Teachers Association of Nigeria. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Third Term Work On Jss1 Agric Science : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Third Term Work On Jss1 Agric Science : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
