Israel in Exile Ranen Omer-Sherman, 2010-10-01 Israel in Exile is a bold exploration of how the ancient desert of Exodus and Numbers as archetypal site of human liberation forms a template for modern political identities radical skepticism and questioning of official narratives of the nation that appear in the works of contemporary Israeli authors including David Grossman Shulamith Hareven and Amos Oz as well as diasporic writers such as Edmund Jab's and Simone Zelitch In contrast to other ethnic and national representations Jewish writers since antiquity have not constructed a neat antithesis between the desert and the city or nation rather the desert becomes a symbol against which the values of the city or nation can be tested measured and sometimes found wanting This book examines how the ethical tension between the clashing Mosaic and Davidic paradigms of the desert still reverberate in secular Jewish literature and produce fascinating literary rewards Omer Sherman ultimately argues that the ancient encounter with the desert acquires a renewed urgency in response to the crisis brought about by national identities and territorial conflicts

From the Conquest of the Desert to Sustainable Development Ilanit Ben-Dor Derimian, 2021-01-10 The Negev desert occupies most of the territory of Israel It has a strategic importance for the existence of the center of the country and at the same time is considered as a natural wild periphery Since the 1920s there was a tendency to conquer and flourish the desert while since the 1980s the ecological values gained importance This manuscript reveals the relationship between man and his environment employing texts analysis according to the ecocriticism approach The study shows how as part of globalization processes the status of collectivism in Israeli society was declined whereas the ability of social groups to influence the spatial identity construction has increased Dr Ilanit Ben Dor Derimian lecturer specialized in Israel and Jewish culture and history studies member of the Research Center of Foreign Cultures Languages and Literatures CECILLE University of Lille France
