Her eyes are closed, and her mouth is open in a passionate expression. The background is dark and out of focus, showing some studio equipment. The lighting is warm and focused on her face.

This Is My Story:

The Other Woman Audrey Maxwell, 2021-11-12 Audrey Maxwell is passionate about the beauty of God's creation of mankind. This book was God inspired to edify, rescue, heal, and bring hope and strategy to all that need an encounter with God, as well as a time of refreshing from life's unavoidable curveballs. Priceless Jewels, founded in 2009, came from her conviction to pour into God's Priceless Jewels and Gems all that He has poured into her. Based on Malachi 3:17, the annual Priceless Jewels Women's Conference Women of Worth Summit was established. Audrey has been given insight that illuminates the inner worth and value of women who were created and fashioned by God for His good pleasure. Over many years, women from all walks of life have been enlightened, transformed, and discovered their worth. They now understand the beauty of being a virtuous woman. Proverbs 31 teaches that a woman's worth is far above rubies, meaning we are among the rarest jewels. Adam proclaimed the original woman to be bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh because she was taken out of him. The OG original greatness of God is in every woman, though lying dormant in many. Audrey is anointed by God to call forth the Other Woman, original woman, that she may acknowledge, proclaim, and know her worth. The premise: I am SHE, serene, holy, and efficient. She is the Other Woman who has lived within us from the beginning. She is a woman of wonder and royalty. SHE is known as a woman of strength, heart, and elegance. The Other Woman has always been given a bad reputation, but all is not lost. This message is to give her hope and exposure. Enjoy the words of life and hope shared on every page of this book. Feminist Dilemmas in Qualitative Research Jane Ribbens, Rosalind Edwards, 1997-12-12 How can researchers produce work with relevance to theoretical and formal traditions and requirements of public academic knowledge while still remaining faithful to the experiences and accounts of research participants based in private settings? Feminist Dilemmas in Qualitative Research explores this key dilemma and examines the interplay between theory, epistemology, and the detailed practice of research. It does this across the whole research process: access, data collection, and analysis, and writing up research. It goes on to consider ways of achieving high standards of reflexivity and openness in the strategic choices made during research, examining these issues for specific projects in an open and accessible style. Particular themes examined are the research dilemmas that occur from feminist perspectives in relation to researching private and personal social worlds, the position of the researcher as situated between public knowledge and private experience, and the dilemmas raised for researchers seeking to contribute to academic discourse while remaining close to their knowledge forms. Is Music John Taggart, 2013-07-01 John Taggart's poetry is not like music; it is music. George Oppen, Is Music, a major retrospective of an American original, gathers the best poems from John Taggart's fourteen volumes, ranging from early objectivist experiments and jazz-influenced improvisational pieces to longer breathtaking compositions regarded as underground masterpieces. There is a prayerful quality to Taggart's poetry, rooted in music from medieval Christian traditions and soul to American punk rock.

He is also heavily influenced by the visual arts most notably in his classic Slow Song for Mark Rothko in which he did with words what Rothko did with paint and dye To breathe and stretch one's arms again to breathe through the mouth to breathe to breathe through the mouth to utter in the most quiet way not to whisper not to whisper to breathe through the mouth in the most quiet way to breathe to sing to breathe to sing to breathe to sing the most quiet way To sing to light the most quiet light in darkness radiantia radiantia singing light in darkness To sing as the host sings in his house John Taggart is the author of fourteen books of poetry and two books of criticism He was for many years a professor of English and director of the Interdisciplinary Arts Program at Shippensburg University He lives near Shippensburg Pennsylvania Drop the Drama! Guerin Moorman,2013-06-05 We all experience drama in one form or another Whether its relational conflicts financial stress addiction anger overeating or any number of problems drama is not something that happens to us but something that happens within us In whatever form we experience it drama is ultimately the internal dialogue of wrestling against what is Drop the Drama From Drama Addiction to Simply Inspired Living asserts that we become drama addicts emotionally reacting to life recreating life stories based on a limited understanding of who we really are In an approach that transcends all spiritual paths Drop the Drama takes an alternative view of the ancient story of Adam and Eve challenging our traditional ways of viewing God self the nature of reality and ultimately revealing a new way of Simply Inspired Living for all humanity Explore the root cause of suffering The Drama Mind Expose the symptoms of the Drama Mind and how it cloaks itself from our awareness Drop the cycles of Shame Blame and The Drama Game Discover The Quest questions found in the story of Adam and Eve leading us out of drama and back to Simply Inspired Living Drop the Drama is not about providing more factual knowledge for the mind or getting motivated to achieve certain results in life It is about uncovering the stories we create the discovery of who we really are and unleashing a life that is simply inspiring Are you ready to Drop the Drama

Expectation of Valor Kevin C.M. Benson, 2024-07-18 Of all the many mistakes the United States made in invading Iraq none was as damning as the mishandling of postwar security and reconstruction The place to start to understand that fiasco is with Kevin Benson's Expectation of Valor Kenneth M Pollack former CIA Persian Gulf military analyst and author of Armies of Sand The Past Present and Future of Arab Military Effectiveness Given the length of time the United States spent in Iraq there is a perception that there was no consideration before the war of what should be done after coalition forces arrived in Baghdad and removed Saddam Hussein However as this unofficial history reveals there was a great deal of planning to address how to achieve the policy objectives for Iraq set by the Bush administration Kevin Benson director of plans for the United States Third Army the ground forces command headquarters for GEN Franks Central Command at the start of the war details the development of the invasion plan and its subsequent execution from D Day in March 2003 until the change of command of operations in Iraq and the departure of Third Army in June 2003 He addresses the persistent trope that the Army did no planning for Phase IV revealing that extensive plans were proposed and were met with very little interest in Washington The book covers the difficulties encountered in dealing with Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld from getting his approval on the number of forces requested to conducting the campaign to find the smoking gun of WMD the instructions given to Army Marine and coalition forces and the daily secure video teleconferences with Central Command and the Pentagon and the rather remarkable conversations and guidance that came from these meetings The Life Writing

Workbook Aih,2015-08-20 I stumbled upon life writing at age twenty nine I was at that moment in a divorce when you know its over and its time to move on I realized how little I understood my life and that I had no real sense of how to make a life I wanted a life I wanted a certain kind of satisfaction from life that I knew existed yet here I was very clear that this marriage wasnt going to work out and faced with raising a lovely child alone as I made my way toward this certain something I couldnt even name I moved in with my best friends parents who were very kind to me To try to get a handle on things I secluded myself in their basement for many evenings to dissect my life story It was just instinct Starting with my earliest memory I started the walk forward sifting carefully through each experience I could recall I would approach certain memories in the writing and my body would tighten At first I just kept going but those particular memories called me back So I went back slowed down and sifted more carefully looking at the scene the circumstances the people involved and at myself my emotions my perceptions and my fears At the end of this rather intense process there was no doubt that something in me had shifted I felt a new sense of self possession I felt aware of myself in a way I wasnt before I can see this same new presence and power arise in the faces of others as they complete the life writing process The Life Writing Workbook guides you step by step through eight sessions of deeply engaging private and transformative writing through your life story Westminster
