institutional environments and levels of marketing experience Annual Report of the City Librarian ,1880 Annual Report of the Fishery Board for Scotland Scotland. Fishery Board,1894 The Political Economy of Financial Development in Malaysia Lena Rethel,2020-12-20

Current inquiries into the political economy of financial policymaking in Malaysia tend to focus on the high level drama of crisis politics or simply point to the limited impact of post crisis financial reforms given that politico business relations have remained close In so doing pundits ignore a number of intriguing questions what is the relationship between financial development and financialisation and how has it played out in the Malaysian context And more generally how can a country like Malaysia become significantly more financially developed yet fail to emancipate the financial system from political control a core element of the financial development discourse To unravel the complexities of this puzzle this book subjects the history and contemporary practices of financial policymaking in Malaysia to scrutiny It argues that to understand financial development in Malaysia its progress and reversals it is important to conceptualise it as a political rather than a merely technical process In so doing the book echoes a more profound concern in the political economy literature namely the evolving relationship between states and markets and the supposed retreat or reassertion of the state at a time of increasing financial globalisation The book can generate further insights into the evolving role of the state with regard to broader processes of development and marketisation as they relate specifically to finance

Wildlife, Conservation, and Conflict in Quebec, 1840-1914 Darcy Ingram, 2013-04-29 Despite the popular assumption that wildlife conservation is a recent phenomenon it emerged over a century and a half ago in an era more closely associated with wildlife depletion than preservation In Wildlife Conservation and Conflict in Quebec Darcy Ingram explores the combination of NGOs fish and game clubs and state administered leases that formed the basis of a unique system of wildlife conservation in North America Inspired by a longstanding belief in progress improvement and social order based on European as well as North American models this system effectively privatized Quebec's fish and game resources often to the detriment of commercial and subsistence hunters and fishers

What Jane Knew Maureen Konkle, 2024-04-30 The children of an influential Ojibwe Anglo family Jane Johnston and her brother George were already accomplished writers when the Indian agent Henry Rowe Schoolcraft arrived in Sault Ste Marie in 1822 Charged by Michigan's territorial governor with collecting information on Anishinaabe people he soon married Jane discovered the family's writings and began soliciting them for traditional Anishinaabe stories But what began as literary play became the setting for political struggle Jane and her family wrote with attention to the beauty of Anishinaabe narratives and to their expression of an Anishinaabe world that continued to coexist with the American republic But Schoolcraft appropriated the stories and published them as his own writing seeking to control their meaning and to destroy their impact in service to the civilizing interests of the United States In this dramatic story Maureen Konkle helps recover the literary achievements of Jane Johnston Schoolcraft and her kin revealing as never before how their lives and work shed light on nineteenth century struggles over the future of Indigenous people in the United States
