CHAPTER I THE NATURE WARRANT AND HISTORY OF FAMILT WORSHIP Family Worship as the name imports is the joint worship rendered to God by all the members of one household There are some duties so plain that they are rather assumed than commanded in the word of God and the number of such is greater than might be supposed on a superficial examination This is especially true of those duties which belong to the family relation as for example those of the mother to her babe They are subjected to regulation and are objects of frequent allusion but are not incorporated into the law of commandments We are not to wonder therefore if we find even in the New Testament no separate and explicit injunction to worship God in the family As little do we find any command to pray when we preach the word or when death has visited our dwellings These are things which it was safe to leave with the pious sentiment of Christians and yet they are not the less characteristic of good men nor less universal in the church The new born soul must pray even as the new born child must breathe And wherever the grace of prayer is shed forth in the soul it will flow out in certain acts There is an irresistible impulse to pray for those whom we love and not only to pray for them but with them There is a natural as well as a gracious prompting to pray with those who are near to us Prayer is a social exercise The prayer which our Lord taught his disciples bears this stamp on every petition It is this principle which leads to the united devotions of church assemblies and which immediately manifests itself in Christian families If there were but two human beings upon earth they would be drawn if they were of sanctified hearts to pray Thoughts on Family-worship James Waddell Alexander, 1856 Thoughts on Family-worship James W.
