Kohlmoos, 2012-02-24 ABOUT THE BOOK One could not count the moons that shimmer on her roofs or the thousand splendid suns that hide behind her walls A Thousand Splendid Suns is a gripping story of two women learning how to survive under the thumb of an abusive husband in Taliban controlled Afghanistan Mariam grew up as the illegitimate daughter of a Herat businessman raised by a bitter and depressed single mother Laila was the beloved daughter of a Kabul man who believed in a world where men and women are equal When the circumstances of war bring them together under the roof of the cruel Rasheed their only comfort is in the special bond of sisterhood they form during years cut off from the rest of the world Khaled Hosseini weaves a tale of love and survival that begins during the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan in the 1970s and ends with the American invasion and occupation in the early 2000s Although ultimately a story of love and friendship A Thousand Splendid Suns reveals the devastating affects of war on those caught in the middle particularly women and children MEET THE AUTHOR Lacey Kohlmoos is a writer traveler and lover of the arts After graduating from the University of Virginia with a BA in Drama the Studies of Women and Gender the only thing she knew for sure was that she wanted to travel So she embarked on a 10 1 2 month round the world trip then traveled to Costa Rica where she spent one year teaching elementary school English in a small mountain town Throughout her two years of travels she s always kept a blog

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK At first Rasheed treats Mariam well albeit distantly But after she has multiple miscarriages he turns abusive It becomes clear to Mariam that the only reason Rasheed married her was so that she would bear him sons When she does not give her husband what he wants Mariam finds herself trapped in a home with a man who believes that husbands should always keep a good handle on their wives Living just down the street from Mariam and Rasheed is a young Kabul beauty Laila Though largely ignored by her mother she is doted upon by her father Hakim who believes that women should be treated as equals to men But the reality of living in Soviet occupied Afghanistan comes crashing down on Laila when her two older brothers are killed while fighting with the Majaheedan She finds comfort in Tariq a slightly older neighborhood boy who protects Laila from bullies and other harm Buy a copy to keep reading A Thousand Splendid Suns by Khaled Hosseini Llewellyn Johns,2007

Yet love can move a person to act in unexpected ways and lead them to overcome the most daunting obstacles with a startling heroism.

A Thousand Splendid Suns Editorial: Editorial Atlantic, Hosseini, Khaled, Hosseini, 2015-06-10. After 103 weeks on the New York Times bestseller list and with four million copies of The Kite Runner shipped, Khaled Hosseini returns with a beautiful, riveting and haunting novel that confirms his place as one of the most important literary writers today. Propelled by the same superb instinct for storytelling that made The Kite Runner a beloved classic, A Thousand Splendid Suns is at once an incredible chronicle of thirty years of Afghan history and a deeply moving story of family, friendship, faith and the salvation to be found in love. Born a generation apart and with very different ideas about love and family, Mariam and Laila are two women brought jarringly together by war, by loss and by fate. As they endure the ever-escalating dangers around them in their home as well as in the streets of Kabul, they come to form a bond that makes them both sisters and mother-daughter to each other and that will ultimately alter the course not just of their own lives but of the next generation. With heart-wrenching power and suspense, Hosseini shows how a woman's love for her family can move her to shocking and heroic acts of self-sacrifice and that in the end it is love or even the memory of love that is often the key to survival. A stunning accomplishment, A Thousand Splendid Suns is a haunting, heartbreaking, compelling story of an unforgiving time, an unlikely friendship and an indestructible love.

Khaled Hosseini Ayşe Gökçe, 2011. Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject English Pedagogy / Didactics / Literature Studies, grade 1.7. Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg, Lehrstuhl Fremdsprachendidaktik. Course: Seminar Young Adult Fiction, language: English, abstract: Teaching English as a foreign language means a great challenge which would certainly be answered by all English teachers in the affirmative. Today every school in Germany offers English as a school subject, even the primary schools. Consequently, it must be put great emphasis on teaching it accurately by taking into consideration any aspect of English language acquisition when learning it, for example the acquisition of a distinctive vocabulary, the ability to use grammar rules correctly, the ability to spell correctly, the ability to understand what has been said when native speakers talk in English, which we call listening comprehension. Another very important part of learning English as a foreign language is undisputedly reading comprehension. The ability to read out correctly, to understand what has been read and to be able to work with a text effectively is not only a competence that should be concentrated on in the foreign language but also in the mother tongue. The PISA Study is a perfect proof of this, which will be mentioned later on. In this paper, I will try to accentuate the importance and significance of reading in the English class. In order to illustrate this, I will introduce the novel A Thousand Splendid Suns by Khaled Hosseini, an American author and doctor with Afghan origins and use it for the elaboration of the importance of reading activities in the English class Initially I will focus on the didactic analysis which includes the reference to the syllabus The syllabus is of course the signpost in terms of guidelines when planning the lessons choosing age appropriate media and methods What role does reading play in this context What is said in the syllabus when it comes to reading The next
