Three Of Chinas Mighty Men:

Three of China's Mighty Men Leslie T. Lyall, 1973 Three of China's Mighty Men Leslie T. Lyall, 2000 There are many heroes in the Chinese church Today humanly speaking it should not exist having been stamped out by the pressure of authorities prior to and during the Communist era Yet today the church is larger than ever and still growing Some of this phenomenon can be attributed to the quality of leadership in the Church People suffered for their faith often in brutal and cruel ways yet God maintained their faith in remarkable ways Whilst there were many leaders of equally courageous stature in the church three men have stood out in the 20th century Wang Ming Dao Nee Duo Sheng Watchman Nee and Yang Shao Tang David Yang Leslie Lyall knew all three as a friend and worked with two of them He brings out their different personalities analyses the effect they had on the church and compares their views in some key areas All three worked outside the official church all three knew and respected each other Their stories are inspiring terrifying solemn and joyous They are an encouragement to us all The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume IV Jehu J. Hanciles, 2019-03-07 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations Volume IV examines the globalization of dissenting traditions in the twentieth century During this period Protestant Dissent achieved not only its widest geographical reach but also the greatest genealogical distance from its point of origin Covering Africa Asia the Middle East America Europe Latin America and the Pacific this collection provides detailed examination of Protestant Dissent as a globalizing movement Contributors probe the radical shifts and complex reconstruction that took place as dissenting traditions encountered diverse cultures and took root in a multitude of contexts many of which were experiencing major historical change at the same time This authoritative overview unambiguously reveals that Dissent was transformed as it travelled A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling, 2020-05-05 In this first in depth and wide ranging history of Christian conversion David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach and engaging recent methods and theories in conversion studies the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity's expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Although conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest Following Christ and Confucius Christopher Payk, 2024-03-15 The first full length critical biography and theological analysis of Wang Mingdao the spiritual father of China's House Church Movement One of the most influential figures in Chinese Christianity church leader and evangelist Wang Mingdao rejected state control of religion in favor of the religious freedom of the unregistered House Churches a choice that made him a frequent target of government persecution In this thorough new biography scholar Christopher Payk traces Wang's life and Christian development through the sociopolitical tumult of twentieth century China Drawing on unpublished sermons journals and additional sources in English and Chinese Payk argues persuasively that Wang's theology while largely based on Christian scripture was shaped by Confucian tradition reason and personal experience Following Christ and Confucius brings new clarity to Wang's uncompromising faith and lasting impact Missionary Primitivism and Chinese Modernity David Woodbridge, 2018-11-23 In Missionary Primitivism and Chinese Modernity the Brethren in Twentieth Century China David Woodbridge offers an account of a little known Protestant missionary group Often depicted as extreme and marginal the Brethren were in fact an influential force within modern evangelicalism They sought to recreate the life of the primitive church and to replicate the simplicity and dynamism of its missionary work Using newly released archive material Woodbridge examines the activities of Brethren missionaries in diverse locations across China from the cosmopolitan treaty ports to the Mongolian and Tibetan frontiers The book presents a fascinating encounter between primitivist missionaries and a modernising China and reveals the important role of the Brethren in the development of Chinese Christianity Theosis, Sino-Christian Theology and the Second Chinese Enlightenment A. Chow, 2013-05-07 For a millennium and a half in China Christianity has been perceived as a foreign religion for a foreign people This volume investigates various historical attempts to articulate a Chinese Christianity comparing the roles that Western and Latin forms of Christian theology have played with the potential role of Eastern Orthodox theology "Kingdom-Minded" People Denise Austin, 2011-09-20 During the early twentieth century in China a number of key economic leaders converted to Christianity Whilst strongly influenced by cultural heritage powerful modernizing forces and tumultuous political changes the new Christian identity inculcated by Protestant missionaries motivated these entrepreneurs to modify their business practices improve their social environment and extend the influence of Christianity Protestant and Catholic sojourners likewise made significant contributions into their adopted communities With unprecedented economic growth in China today a fascinating contemporary parallel can be seen particularly through the influence of Pentecostal charismatic and evangelical training Previous research has explored the emergence of the urban Christian lite in modern China However this systematic study provides new understanding of how Christian identity motivates Chinese business Christians toward economic social and religious contribution Redeemed by Fire Lian, Xi, 2010-01-01 This text addresses the history and future of homegrown mass Chinese Christianity Drawing on a collection of sources the author traces the transformation of Protestant Christianity in the 20th century China from a small missionary church buffeted by antireligionism to an indigenous popular religion energized by nationalism Darkest before the Dawn Richard R. Cook,2021-11-02 The Christian church was always destined to find its way to China Long before the birth of the church China existed coalescing around profound philosophical concepts and powerful cultural symbols It developed into a dynamic and enduring civilization In time Christian missionaries arrived on its shores driven to bring the gospel to this people This book starts with the story of that journey the arrival of the missionaries who planted the seeds of the gospel in Chinese soil As the seeds sprouted and grew a new story of a unique and distinct Chinese church began The epic narrative opens from uncertain beginnings in darkness passes through intense hardship and years of struggle and culminates with the triumphal emergence of the Chinese church from the shadows into the light of the global stage Yearbook of Chinese Theology 2017 Paulos Z. The majority of Christians in China over the course of the last century have worshipped not in missionary founded churches or in congregations affiliated with the contemporary Three Self Patriotic Movement or Chinese Catholic Patriotic Association but in independent and unregistered churches often labeled house churches From the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements within the mission church landscape of the early twentieth century to the Calvinist Reformed movement in the present day Protestant church the vibrant faith life and extraordinary church growth of this sector of Chinese Christianity offer a fascinating witness and lesson to the world church Yet despite the size of their congregations and the spread of their teachings the theologies of these independent and unregistered churches have drawn much less academic attention than those of mission church or state church theologians This volume presents a selection of new studies on house church theologians and theologies These begin in the early twentieth century with studies of the Spiritual Gifts movement in Shandong and the nature of Pentecostalism in Hong Kong and arrive in the present with essays on the changing role of women's leadership in the church given the spread of Reformed thought and the theological implications of Westminsterian Neo Calvinism in China The second section of the volume is devoted to the theological writings and lives of the two most prominent independent church figures of the twentieth century Wang Mingdao and Ni Tuosheng Watchman Nee These chapters include studies of spiritual theology of Ni's doctrine of humanity his views on salvation and his prison letters and of Wang Mingdao's life and moral thought his Confucian beliefs and his understanding of the relationship of Christians to the state The third section of the volume foregrounds church voices like the fundamentalist Samuel Lamb and the mediating figure Yang Shaotang and considers local developments in Roman Catholicism in light of Vatican reforms Biographical Dictionary of Christian Missions Gerald H. Anderson, 1999 The book also features cross references throughout a bibliography accompanying each entry an elaborate appendix listing biographies according to particular categories of interest and a comprehensive index BOOK JACKET Teach Us to Pray D. A. Carson, 2002-09-16 In almost 500 years of evangelical praying there has never been a book like this Teach Us to Pray is in effect four books in one It begins with a detailed analysis of the biblical theology of prayer surveying each part of the Scriptures in turn Next comes an investigation of prayer and spirituality within Hinduism Buddhism Islam historic Christianity Puritanism and a different Christian contemporary tradition Roman Catholicism In addition expert commentators offer Lessons in Prayer from the Worldwide

Church featuring Korea China Latin America and Africa Finally a group of Christian leaders write about prayer in their individual experience adding a personal dimension to this comprehensive book This is a full library on the subject of prayer conserving the best insights of the past and breaking new ground with penetrating original thinking Seeking the Common Ground Philip L. Wickeri,2011-08-05 This is the most comprehensive treatment ever written of the history of the Protestant Church in China over the last forty years Philip Wickeri takes an unprecedented look at one of the most turbulent periods in Chinese history the years from 1949 to the present Wickeri explicates what Chinese Protestants have been saying about themselves in historical and theological perspective His interpretation is based on one particular dynamic how Chinese Protestants have sought to situate themselves in a socialist society within the unifying framework of the united front After an overview of church Marxism and Christianity in China Wickeri discusses the united front He focuses on ideology organization and religious policy Wickeri then explores the Three Self Movement as both a Chinese and a Christian movement His conclusion the Three Self Movement despite problems has made Christianity more accessible to the average Chinese and the church more acceptable to Chinese society Understanding Watchman Nee Dongsheng John Wu,2012-04-01 This book situates Nee s view within the rich heritage of the Protestant Catholic and Eastern Orthodox spiritual traditions and thus renders Nee s thought more intelligible to Christians of both evangelical and more liberal persuasions In this book Dongsheng John Wu examines Watchman Nee s thought on the spiritual life focusing on the relationship between spiritual formation and spiritual knowledge Different ways of acquiring spiritual understanding are explored including the respective roles of divine illumination intellectual studies and life circumstances Understanding Watchman Nee begins by synthesizing strategic aspects of Nee s teachings as well as formative events and sources in the development of Nee s own spirituality and theology It then utilizes the critical work of contemporary theologian Mark McIntosh to bring Nee s voice into dialogue with some important figures in the history of Christian spirituality Such interactions reveal that Nee s crucial theological convictions exhibit strong parallels with related themes found in the church s spiritual or mystical treasures □□□□□□□□□□ □□□,2022-01-31 90 2002
