Through My Eyes In Vietnam 1968:

Through My Eyes Kenneth D. Pollard, 2014-11-10 Through My Eyes is a year long look at my life as a soldier for the United States in Viet Nam You won't find a gruesome war story what you will find is how an American soldier lived and endured 12 months of the worst things you can imagine Vietnam 1968 William Fields Jr, 2025-08-12 Vietnam 1968 Through My Eyes A Pictorial Journey is a powerful non graphic memoir that transports readers to one of the most turbulent years of the Vietnam War Through the lens of a young man fresh out of high school drafted and sent into the heart of the Tet Offensive William Fields Jr captures the transformation from innocent boy to battle hardened soldier You never know what events may unfold that will ultimately bring you home and I truly believe that without my faith I may not have survived Vietnam With over 600 striking photographs Fields offers rare glimpses into daily military life moments of human connection amidst chaos and the emotional toll of returning to an unwelcoming America As reviewer Barbara Bamberger Scott notes this vibrantly illustrated chronicle preserves the memories of those who served and challenges future generations to reflect on the complex history and higher purpose of the war The Marines in Vietnam, 1954-1973, 1985 The Republic of Vietnam, 1955-1975 Tuong Vu, Sean Fear, 2020-01-15 Through the voices of senior officials teachers soldiers journalists and artists The Republic of Vietnam 1955 1975 presents us with an interpretation of South Vietnam as a passionately imagined nation in the minds of ordinary Vietnamese rather than merely as an expeditious political construct of the United States government The moving and honest memoirs collected translated and edited here by Tuong Vu and Sean Fear describe the experiences of war politics and everyday life for people from many walks of life during the fraught years of Vietnam's Second Republic leading up to and encompassing what Americans generally call the Vietnam War The voices gift the reader a sense of the authors experiences in the Republic and their ideas about the nation during that time The light and careful editing hand of Vu and Fear reveals that far from a Cold War proxy struggle the conflict in Vietnam featured a true ideological divide between the communist North and the non communist South Supplement to Vietnam 1964-1973, 2005 Hanoi's Road to the Vietnam War, 1954-1965 Pierre Asselin, 2015-08-18 Using new and largely inaccessible Vietnamese sources as well as French British Canadian and American archives Pierre Asselin sheds valuable light on Hanoi's path to war Step by step the narrative makes Hanoi's revolutionary strategy from the end of the French Indochina War to the start of the Anti American Resistance Struggle for Reunification and National Salvation the Vietnam War transparent The book reveals how North Vietnamese leaders moved from a cautious policy emphasizing nonviolent political and diplomatic struggle to a far riskier pursuit of military victory Supplement to Vietnam 1964-1973 Elwood L. White, 2005 This bibliography is a supplement to the Special Bibliography Series Number 80 compiled in 1990 to support the 14th Military History Symposium It is primarily intended as a listing of scholarly works completed since 1990 on the Vietnam War although some works prior to that date are included The bibliography is selected from the holdings on that war housed in the McDermott library United States Air Force Academy and includes books journal articles government publications and technical reports Newspaper articles works of fiction collections of poetry and most personal narratives are not included The Clark Special Collections Branch of the library has extensive primary source materials and artifacts focused on American POW experiences in Southeast Asia Those items are also excluded from this bibliography since they are limited to in house use only Individuals wanting information about that collection should contact the Special Collections Curator and Academy Archivist America Through the Eyes of Its People, 1997 The Marines in Vietnam, 1954-1973: An Anthology and Annotated Bibliography United States. Marine Corps, 2018-09-17 The Marines in Vietnam 1954 1973 An Anthology and Annotated Bibliography based on articles that appeared in the U S Naval Institute Proceedings Naval Review and Marine Corps Gazette has served well for 14 years as an interim reference on the Vietnam War It has both complemented and supplemented our official histories on Marine operations in Vietnam Since its publication in 1974 however events in Vietnam and the appearance of additional significant articles in the three periodicals have made both the anthology and bibliography somewhat dated This expanded edition extends the coverage of the anthology to 1975 and the entries in the bibliography to 1984 Courageous Women of the Vietnam War Kathryn J. Atwood, Diane Carlson Evans, 2018-05-01 2019 Notable Social Studies Trade Books for Young People List One of just a handful of women reporting on the Vietnam War Kate Webb was captured by North Vietnamese troops and presumed dead until she emerged from the jungle waving a piece of white parachute material after 23 days in captivity Le Ly Hayslip enjoyed a peaceful early childhood in a Vietnamese farming village before war changed her life forever Brutalized by all sides she escaped to the United States where she eventually founded two humanitarian organizations Lynda Van Devanter was an idealistic young nurse in 1969 when a plane carrying her and 350 men landed in South Vietnam Her harrowing experiences working in a combat zone hospital would later serve as inspiration for the TV series China Beach In these pages readers meet these and other brave women and girls who served in life threatening roles as medics journalists resisters and revolutionaries in the conflict in Vietnam Author Kathryn J Atwood presents a clear introduction to each of five chronological sections guiding readers through the social and political turmoil that spanned two decades and the tenure of five US presidents Each woman's story unfolds in a suspenseful engaging way incorporating plentiful original source materials quotes and photographs Resources for further study source notes and a bibliography and a helpful map and glossary round out this exploration of one of modern history's most divisive wars making it an invaluable addition to any student's or history buff's bookshelf Humanities, 1999 Ends of Empire Jodi Kim, 2004 Ends of Empire examines Asian American cultural production and its challenge to the dominant understanding of American imperialism Cold War dynamics and race and gender formation Jodi Kim demonstrates the degree to which Asian American literature and film critique the record of U S imperial violence in Asia and provides a glimpse into the imperial and gendered racial logic of the Cold War She unfolds this particularly entangled and enduring episode in the history of U S global hegemony one that contrary to leading interpretations of the Cold War as a simple bipolar rivalry was significantly triangulated in Asia The Asian American works analyzed here constitute a crucial body of what Kim reveals as transnational Cold War compositions which are at once a geopolitical structuring an ideological writing and a cultural imagining Arguing that these works reframe the U S Cold War as a project of gendered racial formation and imperialism as well as a production of knowledge Ends of Empire offers an interdisciplinary investigation into the transnational dimensions of Asian America and its critical relationship to Cold War history Sitting in the Flames Dr. John Edwin DeVore, 2014-11-12 As reviewed by New York Times best selling author Ellen Tanner Marsh In clear heartfelt prose DeVore describes a brave and unflinching confrontation with his past made necessary in order for him to have a more meaningful future War he realized isn't just one man's experience it's the sum total experience of an entire country To stop wars he argues we must understand them and why we seem to need them The gut wrenching brutality experienced by American soldiers in Vietnam was for many the beginning of a lifelong personal struggle Unlike many veterans who were unable to cope after returning to civilian life John DeVore moved with facility from success as an Army officer to success in corporate America Nevertheless like many other veterans the war haunted DeVore and finally in a process he narrates in this book compelled him to make a commitment to free himself and our country from the addiction to war Joel Andreas author of Addicted to War Why the U S Can't Kick Militarism John DeVore's important book chronicles the remarkable transformation of a professional soldier to a spiritual warrior of peace A must read for those interested in exploring the possibilities of a less violent global future Manfred B Steger professor of politics and government Illinois State University research fellow Globalization Research Center University of Hawaii at Manoa DeVore offers a simple explanation of the interconnectedness of his Western cultural conditioning globalization the reality of war his civilian and military careers and his search for spiritual roots He certainly is a living example of the fearlessness and desire to help others that can begin to emerge through willingness to work with personal emotional turbulence fear anger pride envy selfishness ignorance etc on a daily basis His story really helps us experience that it is possible to turn bad things to good things Ringu Tulku internationally recognized teacher and author of Daring Steps Toward Fearlessness Path to Buddhahood Lazy Lama Series Comment on Gampopa's Jewell Ornament of Liberation Mind Training The Boy Who Had a Dream and A Perspective on Living and Dying Ringu Tulku was born in Eastern Tibet in 1952 and was a professor of Tibetan studies for seventeen years He travels extensively teaches at Naropa University in Boulder Colorado and is director of seven meditation centers in Europe the United States and India His home is Gangtok Sikkim in India and his Bodhicharya website is www.bodhicharya.org Remf War Stories 17th Cag - Nha Trang, Vietnam - 1969 Dean Muehlberg, 2005-04-19 Not a tale of firefights and blood this book should be read by anyone who lived through the Vietnam era that was not directly involved and did not go to Vietnam It provides a sense of what went through their minds the conflicts and confusion and related fears In a self deprecating style the author comes of age examining these emotions and
