request and approval of His Holiness the Sakya Trichen with certainty that they will benefit all beings who desire liberation. The Vajra Lines represents the distilled essence of the Hevajra Tantra and its two explanatory tantras and is almost entirely concerned with esoteric tantric practice. The first topic however is the fundamental teachings of Hinayana and Mahayana Buddhism which are the essential basis for the main tantric practices of Vajrayana. In the Lamdr system this first topic of preliminary instructions is known as the Three Appearances. The second topic the main Vajrayana practices is known as the Three Continua. The preliminary practices presented in the first volume Ornament to Beautify the Three Appearances may be practiced by anyone without specific required preparation. The guiding instructions on impure appearance are for the purpose of developing renunciation and this volume focuses on three main topics: the defects of samsara in order to produce renunciation, the rarity, benefit and transience of life as a human being in order to arouse diligence, and the nature of positive and negative actions and results in order to understand what types of behavior to accept and reject. The guiding instructions on the appearance of the experiences are for the purpose of producing the altruistic intent. This section concerns two main topics: meditation until the common experiences have arisen which focuses on cultivating love, compassion and bodhicitta, and cultivating joy now about the uncommon experiences that will arise later when practicing the Vajrayana teachings. The guiding instructions on pure appearance are for the purpose of producing enthusiasm for the ultimate result of complete awakening. This section briefly describes the inconceivable nature of a buddha's enlightened body, speech and mind. The second volume explains the main tantric practices of the Three Continua. It is a restricted text intended only for students who have at least received the great initiation of Hevajra. It is the most extensive explanation of the Three Continua in a single text. These three are the causal continuum, the abiding mode of phenomenon which involves meditation on the view of the indivisibility of samsara and nirvana for the purpose of eliminating all conceptual elaborations, the method continuum, the precise way to meditate, the main practice of the Teaching, the method for guiding the true nature of the mind, primordial free of conceptual elaborations, the ground of everything, to the four kayas which involves instructions on each of the four initiations, the various sacred commitments associated with the four initiations, the propitiation of the kas and kins if these commitments have been damaged, and the initiations at the time of the path which is the main topic of the method continuum, and the resultant continuum, buddhahood. Dependent on the causal continuum of the mind or universal ground which is like a field being purified by the method continuum of the body which is like water and manure, the resultant continuum of mahamudra, the four resultant kayas which is like the ripened fruit is actualized.

Frontier Tibet Stéphane Gros, 2025-10-01 Frontier Tibet Patterns of Change in the Sino Tibetan Borderlands addresses a historical sequence that sealed the future of the Sino Tibetan borderlands It considers how starting in the late nineteenth century imperial formations and emerging nation states developed competing schemes of integration and debated about where the border between China and Tibet should be It also ponders the ways in which this border is internalised today creating within the People's Republic of China a space that retains some characteristics of a historical frontier The region of eastern Tibet called Kham the focus of this volume is a productive lens through which processes of place making and frontier dynamics can be analysed Using historical records and ethnography the authors challenge purely externalist approaches to convey a sense of Kham's own centrality and the agency of the actors involved They contribute to a history from below that is relevant to the history of China and Tibet and of comparative value for borderland studies

Food of Sinful Demons Geoffrey Barstow, 2017-10-24 Tibetan Buddhism teaches compassion toward all beings a category that explicitly includes animals Slaughtering animals is morally problematic at best and at worst completely incompatible with a religious lifestyle Yet historically most Tibetans both monastic and lay have made meat a regular part of their diet In this study of the place of vegetarianism within Tibetan religiosity Geoffrey Barstow explores the tension between Buddhist ethics and Tibetan cultural norms to offer a novel perspective on the spiritual and social dimensions of meat eating Food of Sinful Demons shows the centrality of vegetarianism to the cultural history of Tibet through specific ways in which nonreligious norms and ideals shaped religious beliefs and practices Barstow offers a detailed analysis of the debates over meat eating and vegetarianism from the first references to such a diet in the tenth century through the Chinese invasion in the 1950s He discusses elements of Tibetan Buddhist thought including monastic vows the Buddhist call to compassion and tantric antinomianism that see meat eating as morally problematic He then looks beyond religious attitudes to examine the cultural economic and environmental factors that oppose the Buddhist critique of meat including Tibetan concepts of medicine and health food scarcity the display of wealth and idealized male gender roles Barstow argues that the issue of meat eating was influenced by a complex interplay of factors with religious perspectives largely supporting vegetarianism while practical concerns and secular ideals pulled in the other direction He concludes by addressing the surge in vegetarianism in contemporary Tibet in light of evolving notions of Tibetan identity and resistance against the central Chinese state The first book to discuss this complex issue Food of Sinful Demons is essential reading for scholars interested in Tibetan religion history and culture as well as global food history Histories of Tibet Kurtis R.
