Little Buddhas Vanessa R. Sasson, 2013 Consideration of children in the academic field of Religious Studies is taking root but Buddhist Studies has yet to take notice Little Buddhas brings together a wide range of scholarship and expertise to address the question of what role children have played in Buddhist literature in particular historical contexts and what role they continue to play in specific Buddhist contexts today The volume is divided into two parts one addressing the representation of children in Buddhist texts the other children and childhoods in Buddhist cultures around the world The ground breaking contributions in this volume challenge the perception of irreconcilable differences between Buddhist idealism and family ties Little Buddhas will be an indispensable resource for students and scholars of Buddhism and Childhood Studies and a catalyst for further research on the topic

Hidden Lands in Himalayan Myth and History, 2020-11-30 In an era of environmental crisis narratives of hidden lands are resonant Understood as sanctuaries in times of calamity Himalayan hidden lands or sbas yul have shaped the lives of many peoples of the region Sbas yul are described by visionary lamas called treasure finders who located hidden lands and wrote guidebooks to them Scholarly understandings of sbas yul as places for spiritual cultivation and refuge from war have been complicated recently Research now explores such themes as the political and economic role of treasure finders the impact of sbas yul on indigenous populations and the use of sbas yul for environmental protection and tourism This book showcases recent scholarship on sbas yul from historical and contemporary perspectives From a Trickle to a Torrent Geoff Childs, Namgyal Choedup, 2018-10-30 What happens to a community when the majority of young people leave their homes to pursue an education From a Trickle to a Torrent documents the demographic and social consequences of educational migration from Nubri a Tibetan enclave in the highlands of Nepal The authors explore parents motivations for sending their children to distant schools and monasteries social connections that shape migration pathways young people s estrangement from village life and dilemmas that arise when educated individuals are unable or unwilling to return and reside in their native villages Drawing on numerous decades of research this study documents a transitional period when the future of a Himalayan society teeters on the brink of irreversible change Waiting at the Mountain Pass Harmandeep Kaur Gill, 2025-03-25 An intimate meditation on aging and dying in exile among elderly Tibetans in Dharamsala India In a Tibetan saying the journey of life is likened to a climb up to a mountain pass Upon reaching it the journey concludes and one must cross over into death and the next rebirth The impermanence of life described by the Buddha as the nature of reality crystallizes at the mountain pass manifesting itself through the painful and arduous descent ahead and a series of sufferings In this book Harmandeep Kaur Gill offers an intimate meditation on the last part of the journey at the mountain pass through closely drawn portraits of elderly exiled Tibetans who aged in Dharamsala India far away from their beloved homeland of Tibet and often alone in the absence of family In Gill s work the mountain pass represents a borderland an in between world where the elderly found themselves living at the crossroad between life and death belonging fully to neither of them It was a time space where everyday life traversed between past and present in darkness and light and in dream and reality as the elderly attempted to come to terms with the realities of their old age By placing relational entanglements and sensations at the heart of its theorization Waiting at the Mountain Pass foregrounds an embodied knowing that is care ful hesitant and unresolved in its claims Aiming to bridge the gap between ethics and epistemology Gill invites the reader to see and listen in a relational and imaginative way where the other reflects back upon the self making the assumed separations between subject and object blurry and unsettling Through meditations on the interrelations of body and mind society and individual and the real and the imagined Waiting at the Mountain Pass provides a sensorial and compassionate understanding of the singularities of life and death in a Tibetan Buddhist world in exile Origins and Migrations in the Extended Eastern Himalayas , 2012-02-03 Origins and migration are core elements in the histories identities and stories of Tibeto Burman speaking populations in the extended eastern Himalayas a region stretching from eastern Nepal through Arunachal Pradesh Nagaland and the hill tracts surrounding Assam to upland Southeast Asia and southwest China This book is the first to bring together contemporary research on Tibeto Burman speaking hill peoples in this region and the only multi disciplinary study of the closely related topics of origins and migration in this part of Asia presenting current research by anthropologists folklorists linguists and historians Through a series of case studies on local and regional populations the contributors explore origins and migration in relation to theoretical and methodological approaches language identity and narrative

Aspiring in Later Life Megha Amrith,Victoria K. Sakti,Dora Sampaio,2023-07-14 In our highly interconnected and globalized world people often pursue their aspirations in multiple places Yet in public and scholarly debates aspirations are often seen as the realm of younger mobile generations since they are assumed to hold the greatest potential for shaping the future This volume flips this perspective on its head by exploring how aspirations are constructed from the vantage point of later life and shows how they are pursued across time space and generations The aspirations of older people are diverse and relate not only to aging itself but also to planning the next generation s future preparing an ideal retirement searching for intimacy and self realization and confronting death and afterlives Aspiring in Later Life brings together rich ethnographic cases from different regions of the world offering original insights into how aspirations shift over the course of life and how they are pursued in contexts of translocal mobility This book is also freely available online as an open access digital edition Download the open access book here Chapters from life of Tibetans Petr Jandáček,Martin Hanker,Aleš Rýznar,Zbyněk

What sustains and remakes family and community through migration For centuries people from Mustang Nepal have relied on agriculture pastoralism and trade as a way of life Seasonal migrations to South Asian cities for trade as well as temporary wage labor abroad have shaped their experiences for decades Yet more recently permanent migrations to New York City where many have settled are reshaping lives and social worlds Mustang has experienced one of the highest rates of depopulation in contemporary Nepal a profoundly visible depopulation that contrasts with the relative invisibility of Himalayan migrants in New York Drawing on more than two decades of fieldwork with people in and from Mustang this book combines narrative ethnography and short fiction to engage with foundational questions in cultural anthropology How do different generations abide with and understand each other How are traditions defended and transformed in the context of new mobilities Anthropologist Sienna Craig draws on her the Tibetan Buddhist notion of cyclic existence as well as the daily act of circumambulating the sacred to think about cycles of movement and patterns of world making shedding light on how kinship remains both firm and flexible in the face of migration From a high Himalayan kingdom to the streets of Brooklyn and Queens The Ends of Kinship explores dynamics of migration and social change asking how individuals families and communities care for each other and carve out spaces of belonging It also speaks broadly to issues of immigration and diaspora belonging and identity and the nexus of environmental economic and cultural transformation Islam and Tibet -

Interactions along the Musk Routes Anna Akasoy,2016-12-14 The first encounters between the Islamic world and Tibet took place in the course of the expansion of the Abbasid Empire in the eighth century Military and political contacts went along with an increasing interest in the other side Cultural exchanges and the transmission of knowledge were facilitated by a trading network with musk constituting one of the main trading goods from the Himalayas largely through India From the thirteenth century onwards the spread of the Mongol Empire from the Western borders of Europe through Central Asia to China facilitated further exchanges The significance of these interactions has been long ignored in scholarship This volume represents a major contribution to the subject bringing together new studies by an interdisciplinary group of international scholars They explore for the first time the multi layered contacts between the Islamic world Central Asia and the Himalayas from the eighth century until the present day in a variety of fields including geography cartography art history medicine history of science and education literature hagiography archaeology and anthropology Luminous Bliss Georgios T.

Halkias,2012-09-30 With an annotated English translation and critical analysis of the Orgyan gling gold manuscript of the short Sukh vativy ha s tra Pure Land Buddhism as a whole has received comparatively little attention in Western studies on Buddhism despite the importance of buddha fields pure lands for the growth and expression of Mah y na Buddhism In this first religious history of Tibetan Pure Land literature Georgios Halkias delves into a rich collection of literary historical and archaeological sources to highlight important aspects of this neglected pan Asian Buddhist tradition He clarifies many of the misconceptions concerning the interpretation of other world soteriology in Indo Tibetan Buddhism and provides translations of original Tibetan sources from the ninth century to the present that represent exoteric and esoteric doctrines that continue to be cherished by Tibetan Buddhists for their joyful descriptions of the Buddhist path The book is informed by interviews with Tibetan scholars and Buddhist practitioners and by Halkias own participant observation in Tibetan Pure Land rituals and teachings conducted in Europe and the Indian subcontinent Divided into three sections Luminous Bliss shows that Tibetan Pure Land literature exemplifies a synthesis of Mah y na sutra based conceptions with a Vajrayana world view that fits progressive and sudden approaches to the realization of Pure Land teachings Part I covers the origins and development of Pure Land in India and the historical circumstances of its adaptation in Tibet and Central Asia Part II offers an English translation of the short Sukh vat vy ha s tra imported from India during the Tibetan Empire and contains a survey of original Tibetan Pure Land scriptures and meditative techniques from the dGe lugs pa bKa brgyud rNying ma and Sa skya schools of Tibetan Buddhism Part III introduces some of the most innovative and popular mortuary cycles and practices related to the Tantric cult of Buddha Amit bha and his Pure Land from the Treasure traditions in the bKa brgyud and rNying ma schools Luminous Bliss locates Pure Land Buddhism at the core of Tibet s religious heritage and demonstrates how this tradition constitutes an integral part of both Tibetan and East Asian Buddhism Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia Jelle J.P.

Wouters,Michael T. Heneise,2022-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia is the first comprehensive and critical overview of the ethnographic and anthropological work in Highland Asia over the past half a century Opening up a grand new space for critical engagement the handbook presents Highland Asia as a world region that cuts across the traditional divides inherited from colonial and Cold War area divisions the Indian Subcontinent South Asia Southeast Asia China East Asia and Central Asia Thirty two chapters assess the history of research identify ethnographic trends and evaluate a range of analytical themes that developed in particular settings of Highland Asia They cover varied landscapes and communities from Kyrgyzstan to India from Bhutan to Vietnam and bring local voices and narratives relating trade and tribute ritual and resistance pilgrimage and prophecy modernity and marginalization capital and cosmos to the fore The handbook shows that for millennia Highland Asians have connected far flung regions through movements of peoples goods and ideas and at all times have been the enactors repositories and mediators of world historical processes Taken together the contributors and chapters subvert dominant lowland narratives by privileging primarily highland vantages that reveal Highland Asia as an ecumene and prism that refracts and generates global history social theory and human imagination In the currently unfolding Asian Century this compels us to reorient and re envision Highland Asia in ethnography in theory and in the connections between this world region made of hills highlands and mountains and a planetary context The handbook reveals both regional commonalities and diversities generalities and specificities and a broad orientation to key themes in the region An indispensable reference work this handbook fills a significant gap in the literature and will be of interest to academics researchers and students interested in Highland Asia Zomia Studies Anthropology Comparative Politics Conceptual History and Sociology Southeast Asian Studies Central Asian Studies and South Asian Studies as well as Asian Studies in general

Long Lives and Untimely Deaths Barbara Gerke, 2011-12-23 Longevity and long life practices have been a pan Tibetan concern for a very long time but have hardly been studied by anthropologists This book presents ethnographic accounts and textual material demonstrating how Tibetans in the Darjeeling Hills India view the life span and map out certain life forces in various areas of knowledge These life forces follow daily monthly and annual cycles Divinations and astrological calculations are widely but varyingly used by Tibetans to assess the strength of life forces and forecast difficult periods in their lives Loss exhaustion or periodic weaknesses of life forces are treated medically or through Tibetan Buddhist practices and rituals In all these events temporality and agency are deeply interlinked in the ways in which Tibetans enhance their vitality prolong their life spans and avoid untimely deaths

Travels in the Netherworld Bryan J. Cuevas, 2008-04-02 In Travels in the Netherworld Bryan J Cuevas examines a fascinating but little known genre of Tibetan narrative literature about the d lok ordinary men and women who claim to have died traveled through hell and then returned from the afterlife These narratives enjoy audiences ranging from the most sophisticated monastic scholars to pious townsfolk villagers and nomads Their accounts emphasize the universal Buddhist principles of impermanence and worldly suffering the fluctuations of karma and the feasibility of obtaining a favorable rebirth through virtue and merit Providing a clear detailed analysis of four vivid return from death tales including the stories of a Tibetan housewife a lama a young noble woman and a Buddhist monk Cuevas argues that these narratives express ideas about death and the afterlife that held wide currency among all classes of faithful Buddhists in Tibet Relying on a diversity of traditional Tibetan sources Buddhist canonical scriptures scholastic textbooks ritual and meditation manuals and medical treatises in addition to the d lok works themselves Cuevas surveys a broad range of popular Tibetan Buddhist ideas about death and dying He explores beliefs about the vulnerability of the soul and its journey beyond death karmic retribution and the terrors of hell the nature of demons and demonic possession ghosts and reanimated corpses Cuevas argues that these extraordinary accounts exhibit flexibility between social and religious categories that are conventionally polarized and concludes that contrary to the accepted wisdom such rigid divisions as elite and folk monastic and lay religion are not sufficiently representative of traditional Tibetan Buddhism on the ground This study offers innovative perspectives on popular religion in Tibet and fills a gap in an important field of Tibetan literature
