During the rest of the examination period, students can communicate freely. Now up to each student: dole out student materials, distribute student directions, and as thought as instructions. Distribute materials all in the testing center/area at the same time.

After each student has filled in the heading of the answer booklet, begin the examination by following the directions for Part I as given below.

Directions for Part I:

Answer questions in your state booklet and read the directions for Part I. After reading, read and understand the directions, begin planning your strategy for FLACS and, depending on the following:

There are two types of questions in Part I. Each question is based on a short passage, which will be read aloud to you. Listen carefully. Before each passage, and with some four-point instructions in English only. There are two types of questions in English only. After you have heard the passage for the first time, you will hear the questions in English only. The questions will be asked in your test booklet. After you have heard the questions, you will hear them again, usually before starting the next question. During that time, read the questions and the four suggested answers in your test booklet. Choose the best suggested answer on the basis of the instructions provided in the passage and write in number in the space provided in your answer booklet. If possible, you read the questions and the suggested answers while listening to the passage. This will allow you to give all your attention to what the test is asking for. It is recommended that you
