Body of Victim, Body of Warrior Cabeiri deBergh Robinson,2013-03-08 This book provides a fascinating look at the creation of contemporary Muslim jihadists Basing the book on her long term fieldwork in the disputed borderlands between Pakistan and India Cabeiri deBergh Robinson tells the stories of people whose lives and families have been shaped by a long history of political conflict Interweaving historical and ethnographic evidence Robinson explains how refuge seeking has become a socially and politically debased practice in the Kashmir region and why this devaluation has turned refugee men into potential militants She reveals the fraught social processes by which individuals and families produce and maintain a modern jihad and she shows how Muslim refugees have forged an Islamic notion of rights a hybrid of global political ideals that adopts the language of human rights and humanitarianism as a means to rethink refugees positions in transnational communities Jihad is no longer seen as a collective fight for the sovereignty of the Islamic polity but instead as a personal struggle to establish the security of Muslim bodies against political violence torture and rape Robinson describes how this new understanding has contributed to the popularization of jihad in the Kashmir region decentered religious institutions as regulators of jihad in practice and turned the families of refugee youths into the ultimate mediators of entrance into militant organizations This provocative book challenges the idea that extremism in modern Muslim societies is the natural by product of a clash of civilizations of a universal Islamist ideology or of fundamentalist conversion

BENJAMIN LEE VINCE, 2014-06-02 But David tarried behind The scribe has chosen a subordinating conjunction but to conceal a negative abstraction worthy of investigation The verb tarried is passive in its expression and it too is hiding a secret The scribe is trying to lead us to believe that David was tired and needed a rest however investigations persuade us to believe that something else was on his mind Could it be a few days before David received a text message from Bathsheba to induce his probing spirit that kept him home and awake after all they were neighbors and David was a cats meow Could it be that their attraction factors were aroused and one or the other made a gesture of willingness Could it be also that she had seen him up there before and lust was conceived in her heart and she thought this a tranquil opportunity to gratify her lust and if it came to light he could sweep it under his political rug David turning to politics to cover his tracks was the mistake of his life and many in religious leadership are following the same path
