

INTRODUCTION

Your engine has been fully tested and run under load, and finally inspected prior to its despatch from Watermota, but on receiving a new engine a careful check should be made to see that no damage has occurred in transit.

Watermota carry out a process of continuous improvement and parts may not be exactly as illustrated, but the same principles of maintenance apply and by quoting the engine number on requiring spares the correct parts are supplied.

This book has been produced to assist the owner in the proper care and maintenance which should be given to the engine to ensure that it will give long and trouble free service. The equipment dealt with in the following pages is precision built, every part conforming rigidly to standards of the highest quality. Every effort is made to maintain your confidence and satisfaction in the product.

Your engine and gearbox are known at the factory by their numbers. We suggest you record these numbers in the panel provided below for quick and easy reference. The engine and gearbox numbers will be found on the plate mounted on the gearbox inspection cover. We would ask that you refer to these numbers when writing to us.
