Military Psychology for Africa Gideon Van Dyk, 2016-03-17 Military Psychology for Africa is the first textbook of its kind from Africa. Selected authors with competent military psychology knowledge, skills, expertise, and experience each contributed a chapter to this unique book. The book empowers academics, students, and military fellows to apply this knowledge at academic institutions and military units during operations and in presenting short courses. The book will also equip soldiers with new knowledge for advancing peace on the continent and abroad.

Researching the Military Helena Carreiras, Celso Castro, Sabina Frederic, 2016-03-02 Researching the Military focuses on the experiences of researchers who study the military around the world. It explores the historical, social, institutional, and personal factors that frame research and scrutinize the way knowledge in this area impacts society and policy. More than merely analyzing research experiences yet necessarily including them, it is also about the experiences of researchers, their position with regard to the object of their studies, the institutional context where they work, and the way their research impacts the academic and policy-making fields in the respective countries. The common theme to the various chapters is reflexivity, a conscious effort at addressing the conditions of research and the position of the researcher and the research participants in that interface. By collecting diverse experiences of researchers from across the world, this volume aims to enhance reflexivity in the field of military studies and to encourage the exchange of knowledge between the academic field and the military arena. This book will be of much interest to students of military studies, research methods, sociology, social anthropology, and security studies in general.

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security, political, and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state, how has civilian control of the military been implemented, and what does this mean for defence in a democracy? This book presents an overview of the security environment, how the mission focus of the military has changed, and the implications for force procurement, force preparation, force employment, and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force, the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy, recruitment and retention of military veterans, looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society, and finding gainful employment, gender equality, and mainstreaming the rise of military unions, and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged. HIV/AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing, the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation, spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence, security, and civil-military relations of countries around the world.

Home Front: South Africa and the Second World War Evert Kleynhans, Anri Delpont, 2024-11-15 Home Front: South Africa and the Second World War offers a fresh academic perspective through the voices of both new and established scholars leveraging recently uncovered archival material to illuminate the experiences of South Africans at home between 1939 and 1945 This latest addition to South Africa's wartime historiography is thoughtfully divided into two broad sections dealing with active participation in and resistance against the Allied war effort The book highlights the vigorous mobilisation and recruitment campaigns that saw thousands enlist and the pivotal roles women assumed in industry and civil service It explores how the war effort permeated every facet of society challenging traditional gender roles and societal norms It delves into the dynamic shifts within South African society from politics and community mobilisation to the contributions of collegiate schools and the impact on sports It uncovers the undercurrents of dissent that existed alongside visible support It brings to light the political activism within the African National Congress the covert operations of Nazi sympathisers and the simmering tensions among Afrikaner nationalists In doing so the chapters collectively unravel the complexity of South African society where loyalty and opposition coexisted often influenced by propaganda espionage and socio political manoeuvring

The Republic of Gupta Pieter-Louis Myburgh, 2017-04-24 What was Ajay Gupta doing on Thabo Mbeki's secret advisory council Did the Guptas play a role in Jacob Zuma's rise to power How did the Guptas capture South African cricket What is their interest in the controversial nuclear procurement deal What influence have they had in the hiring and firing of cabinet ministers The Guptas rose to national infamy when a commercial airliner packed with guests for a family wedding was allowed to land at Air Force Base Waterkloof in 2013 sparking an onslaught of public outrage Since then they have become embroiled in allegations of state capture of dishing out cabinet posts to officials who would do their bidding and of benefiting from lucrative state contracts and dubious loans The Republic of Gupta investigates what the Gupta brothers were up to during Thabo Mbeki's presidency and how they got into the inner circle of President Jacob Zuma It shines new light on their controversial ventures in computers cricket newspapers and TV news and coal and uranium mining And it explores their exposure by public protector Thuli Madonsela their conflict with finance minister Pravin Gordhan and the real reasons behind the cabinet reshuffle of March 2017 Pieter Louis Myburgh delves deeper than ever before into the Guptas business dealings and their links to prominent South African politicians and explains how one family managed to transform an entire country into the Republic of Gupta

Australian Contributions to Strategic and Military Geography Stuart Pearson, Jane L. Holloway, Richard Thackway, 2018-03-08 Drawing from military geography's spatial roots its embrace of dynamic systems and integration of human and biophysical environments this book helps in understanding the value of analyzing patterns processes and systems and cross scale and multi disciplinary ways of acting in a complex world while making the case for a resurgence of strategic and military geography in Australia Here leading experts demonstrate that geography retains its relevance in clarifying the scale and dynamics of defense activities in assessments of the international regional national and site impacts of changes in physical cyber and human geographies The cases presented show Australia contributing to a growing strategic and military geography

Post-conflict Reconstruction and Development in Africa Theo Neethling, Heidi Hudson, 2013-10-01 Some of the bloodiest conflicts occur on the African continent An Afrocentric perspective is therefore a suitable starting point for research into the possible strategies for post conflict peacebuilding The authors of this book consider the problems around the concept of post conflict and the blurring of military and civilian roles analysing the UN roles in the DRC and Sierra Leone as well as the African Union Mission in Burundi The main context of the book however is the South African Army's strategy for PCRD in Africa which was developed with the African Union's 2006 Post Conflict Reconstruction and Development Needs Assessment Guide in mind This book emanates from this plan It therefore also explores South Africa's policy imperatives to integrate development projects and peace missions involving the military as well as civilian organisations While this book is not intended as an instruction manual it hopes to ignite an understanding of the particular processes required to develop a sustainable and cohesive post conflict peacebuilding strategy within the African environment

The Imperial Aircraft Flotilla Margaret Hall, 2017-10-30 A great wave of fundraising patriotic associations followed in the wake of Great Britain's declaration of war on Germany on 4 August 1914 at home but also right across the empire The most successful public campaign of all was launched in London at the beginning of 1915 Known as the Imperial Aircraft Flotilla the scheme aimed to attract contributions towards aircraft production costs from throughout the British Empire Any country locality or community that provided sufficient funds for an entire aeroplane could have it named after them It was promised that when the machine crashed or was shot down the name would be transferred to a new one of the same type Margaret Hall examines the Imperial Aircraft Flotilla as a facet of imperial history She analyzes the fundraising efforts in Canada and Newfoundland the Zanzibar Protectorate Fiji Mauritius and the Caribbean Hong Kong the Malay states and Straits Settlements West Africa especially Gold Coast Southern Rhodesia Basutoland Swaziland and the Union of South Africa the Indian empire and Burma British subjects in independent Abyssinia and Siam in the Shanghai International Settlement and the British community of Argentina Australia and New Zealand This remarkable and detailed book discusses the propaganda and counter subversion usages of the Imperial Aircraft Flotilla and what the support for the imperial war effort reveals about contemporary national and regional identities and aspirations The Gender and Security Agenda Chantal de Jonge Oudraat, Michael E. Brown, 2020-05-27 This book examines the gender dimensions of a wide array of national and international security challenges The volume examines gender dynamics in ten issue areas in both the traditional and human security sub fields armed conflict post conflict terrorism military organizations movement of people development environment humanitarian emergencies human rights governance The contributions show how gender affects security and how security problems affect gender issues Each chapter also examines a common set of key factors across the issue areas obstacles to progress drivers of progress and long term strategies for progress in the 21st century The volume develops key scholarship on the gender dimensions of security challenges and thereby provides a foundation for improved strategies and policy directions going forward The lesson to be drawn from this study is clear if scholars policymakers and citizens care about these issues then they need to think about both security and gender This will be of much interest to students of gender studies security studies human security and International Relations in general The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Statesman's Yearbook 2016 Nick Heath-Brown, 2017-02-07 Now in its 152nd edition The Statesman's Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world Covering political economic social and cultural aspects the Yearbook is also available online for subscribing institutions www.statesmansyearbook.com Science and Technology in South Africa, 1939-1946 Suryakanthie Chetty, 2025-11-17 This book addresses the ways in which science and technology were employed in South Africa during the Second World War A key theme underlying the chapters is the human mind in Chapter One which addresses the submission of ideas to the Union Defence Force this is the inventive mind in Chapter Seven with its focus on aviation medicine there is the description of human will and agency and their ultimate subordination to technology and in Chapter Eight which considers psychiatry it is the measurement of the mind that is addressed on the part of medical experts The final chapter concludes with the concept of the world mind and the use of science to create a new post war world order Each chapter employs a case study to highlight the ways in which science and technology were interwoven with society and identity national racial and gendered in wartime South Africa The overarching theme explored is the hierarchies of knowledge creation whether in relation to South Africa as a dominion within the British Empire as a member of the Allies or as a nation rife with societal tension exacerbated by the war Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel, 2020-12-25 Human movement has an influence on the socio economic dynamics of people regions and countries The schisms between host and immigrants impact how host countries utilize immigrant skills and expertise to benefit their economies However immigrants are impacted by negative diplomatic relations between countries that limit the free movement of people and the welfare of immigrants In association this brings about social challenges such as Afrophobia racism xenophobia hatred and violence within these countries While these challenges are deeply rooted across the world Africa has its own unique challenges Still struggling with massive underdevelopment Africa needs to remove all the negative factors that could impede its quest of achieving development imperatives Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa analyzes the genesis and evolution of immigration in Africa and how this has resulted in social challenges such as xenophobia within the continent The book focuses on demonstrating how immigrant skills and expertise can be positively utilized to assist African development and asserts the existence of xenophobia in respective countries does not assist Africa s quest of resolving its own challenges The chapters within this book therefore explore how this subsequent output of xenophobia has impacted African development and focuses on the revival of Pan Africanism as a uniting instrument and ideology for Africans This book is a valuable reference tool for activists retired and practicing politicians governments policymakers practitioners stakeholders researchers students and academicians Women and the Military Ruth Margolies Beitler, Sarah M.
