War Shadows The Haunting Vietnam:

War and Shadows Mai Lan Gustafsson, 2010-12-15 Vietnamese culture and religious traditions place the utmost importance on dying well in old age body unblemished with surviving children and properly buried and mourned More than five million people were killed in the Vietnam War many of them young many of them dying far from home Another 300 000 are still missing Having died badly they are thought to have become angry ghosts doomed to spend eternity in a kind of spirit hell Decades after the war ended many survivors believe that the spirits of those dead and missing have returned to haunt their loved ones In War and Shadows the anthropologist Mai Lan Gustafsson tells the story of the anger of these spirits and the torments of their kin Gustafsson's rich ethnographic research allows her to bring readers into the world of spirit possession focusing on the source of the pain the physical and mental anguish the spirits bring and various attempts to ameliorate their anger through ritual offerings and the intervention of mediums Through a series of personal life histories she chronicles the variety of ailments brought about by the spirits wrath from headaches and aching limbs often the same limb lost by a loved one in battle to self mutilation In Gustafsson's view the Communist suppression of spirit based religion after the fall of Saigon has intensified anxieties about the well being of the spirit world While shrines and mourning are still allowed spirit mediums were outlawed and driven underground along with many of the other practices that might have provided some comfort Despite these restrictions she finds victims of these hauntings do as much as possible to try to lay their ghosts to rest

Between War and the State Van Nguyen-Marshall, 2023-07-15 In Between War and the State Van Nguyen Marshall examines an array of voluntary activities including mutual help professional charitable community development student women's and rights organizations active in South Vietnam from 1954 to 1975 By bringing focus to the public lives of South Vietnamese people Between War and the State challenges persistent stereotypes of South Vietnam as a place without society or agency Such robust associational life underscores how an active civil society survived despite difficulties imposed by the war government restrictions economic hardship and external political forces These competing political forces which included the United States Western aid agencies and Vietnamese communist agents created a highly competitive arena wherein the South Vietnamese state did not have a monopoly on persuasive or coercive power To maintain its influence the state sometimes needed to accommodate groups and limit its use of violence Civil society participants in South Vietnam leveraged their social connections made alliances appealed to the domestic and international public and used street protests to voice their concerns secure their interests and carry out their activities

Regimes of Happiness Yuri Contreras-Vejar, Joanna Tice Jen, Bryan S Turner, 2019-03-15 Regimes of Happiness is a comparative and historical analysis of how human societies have articulated and enacted distinctive notions of human fulfillment determining divergent moral ethical and religious traditions and incommensurate and conflicting understanding of the meaning of the good life A two part book it provides a historical view of the way in which Western societies the descendants of the Latin Roman Empire created languages and institutions that established specific and occasionally antithetical conceptions of a fulfilled human life or happiness in the first part In the second part it explores how non Western societies and non Christian religions have conceived and established their own ideals of human perfection Regimes of Happiness is a critical reflection on modern notions of happiness which are typically focused on individual feelings of pleasure The 'Hidden Curriculum' of Vietnam's English School Textbooks Thi Duyen Phuong,Raf Vanderstraeten,2024-03-15 This book analyzes the basic ideas and premises underlying the English textbooks used at the higher secondary school level in Vietnam from the 1980s to the present from a sociological perspective The dataset upon which this book builds consists of a collection of 18 textbooks which belong to five sets of locally developed English textbooks for grade 10 to grade 12 students These series were used in all public schools from the mid 1980s to the present During this period schooling expanded rapidly in Vietnam while English also gained increasing prominence within the school system This book examines the curricular content of these textbooks and presents a long term analysis of the hidden curricular content in light of Vietnam s recent history and its government s concerns about national identity Human Rights and the Arts Lily Cho,Susan J. Henders,2014-10-23 Human Rights and the Arts Perspectives on Global Asia approaches human rights issues from the perspective of artists and writers in global Asia By focusing on the interventions of writers artists filmmakers and dramatists the book moves toward a new understanding of human rights that shifts the discussion of contexts and subjects away from the binaries of cultural relativism and political sovereignty From Ai Wei Wei and Michael Ondaatje to Umar Kayam Saryang Kim Lia Zixin and Noor Zaheer among others this volume takes its lead from global Asian artists powerfully re orienting thinking about human rights subjects and contexts to include the physical spiritual social ecological cultural and the transnational Looking at a range of work from Tibet Indonesia Sri Lanka India China Bangladesh Japan Korea Vietnam and Macau as well as Asian diasporic communities this book puts forward an understanding of global Asia that underscores Asia as a global site It also highlights the continuing importance of nation states and specific geographical entities while stressing the ways that the human rights subject breaks out of these boundaries Many of these works are included in the companion volume Human Rights and the Arts in Global Asia An Anthology also published by Lexington Books The Hauntology of Everyday Life Sadeq Rahimi,2021-08-18 This volume develops a comprehensive framework for applying the theory of hauntology to everyday life from ethnographic and clinical points of view The central argument of the book is that all human experience is fundamentally haunted and that a shift from ontological theory of subjective experience to a hauntological one is necessary and has urgent implications Building on the notion of hauntology outlined by Derrida the discussions are developed within the frameworks of psychoanalytic theory specifically Jacques Lacan s object relational theory of ego development and his structural reading of Freud s theory of the psychic apparatus and its dynamics along with the Hegelian ontology of the negative and its later modifications by 20th century philosophers such as Heidegger and Derrida and the semiotics of difference introduced by

Saussure and worked by Jakobson and others This book argues and demonstrates the immediate relevance of hauntological analysis in everyday life by providing a microanalysis of the roles played by power meaning and desire and by using vignettes and data from ethnographic research and clinical settings as well as references to literature movies and other cultural products

Forensic Archaeology W. J. Mike Groen, Nicholas Márquez-Grant, Rob Janaway, 2015-02-17 Forensic archaeology is mostly defined as the use of archaeological methods and principles within a legal context However such a definition only covers one aspect of forensic archaeology and misses the full potential this discipline has to offer This volume is unique in that it contains 57 chapters from experienced forensic archaeological practitioners working in different countries intergovernmental organisations or NGOs It shows that the practice of forensic archaeology varies worldwide as a result of diverse historical educational legal and judicial backgrounds The chapters in this volume will be an invaluable reference to forensic archaeologists forensic anthropologists humanitarian and human rights workers forensic scientists police officers professionals working in criminal justice systems and all other individuals who are interested in the potential forensic archaeology has to offer at scenes of crime or places of incident This volume promotes the development of forensic archaeology worldwide In addition it proposes an interpretative framework that is grounded in archaeological theory and methodology integrating affiliated behavioural and forensic sciences

Identity and the Second Generation Faith G. Nibbs, Caroline B. Brettell, 2021-04-30 Most recently Americans have become familiar with the term second generation as it is applied to children of immigrants who now find themselves citizens of a nation built on the notion of assimilation This common worldwide experience is the topic of study in Identity and the Second Generation These children test and explore the definition of citizenship and their cultural identity through the outlets provided by the Internet social media and local community support groups All these factors complicate the ideas of boundaries and borders of citizenship and even of home Indeed the second generation is a global community and endeavors to make itself a home regardless of state or citizenship This book explores the social worlds of the children of immigrants Based on rich ethnographic research the contributors illustrate how these young people the so called second generation construct and negotiate their lives Ultimately the driving question is profoundly important on a universal level How do these young people construct an identity and a sense of belonging for themselves and how do they deal with processes of inclusion and exclusion An Iranian and American Veteran Exchange Stories and Discuss Inner Peace Mohammad Khodayarifard, James McClenon, 2021-07-07 This book brings together an Iranian Iran Iraq War veteran and an American Vietnam War veteran both mental health professionals to exchange war stories and discuss self help strategies for post traumatic stress disorder PTSD They engage in forms of self help therapy for treating PTSD Each chapter contains an exchange of stories a discussion of therapy in progress and self help assignments for readers

Near Light We Shine Sara Ann Swenson, 2025-12-15 Volunteers often became involved with Buddhist charities after facing their own experiences of urban alienation in Ho Chi Minh City Many described the city as a place fraught with moral uncertainty They formed grassroots charities in response to the perceived moral and material needs of other urban residents The Sunshine Volunteer Corps was one group that teamed up to provide free homecooked meals for cancer patients at the Ho Chi Minh City Oncology Hospital Volunteers also worked with other charity groups to visit orphanages feed strangers and donate goods to people in need This chapter traces how perceptions of a moral downturn in Ho Chi Minh City motivated volunteers to adapt Buddhist teachings and practices toward caring for others through giving Provided by publisher

Haunted Modernities Anru Lee, 2023-07-31 In 1973 twenty five young women drowned in a ferry accident on their way to work in factories in Taiwan's Kaohsiung Export Processing Zone Their remains were recovered and interred collectively in what came to be called the Twenty five Maiden Ladies Tomb Without a husband s ancestral hall where they would have been laid to rest the spirits of these unmarried women were considered homeless and possibly vengeful and so the Maiden Ladies Tomb was viewed as a place to be avoided especially by young men traveling alone fearful of encountering a female ghost searching for a husband Over the years numerous plans were made to revamp the tomb site finally in 2008 at the urging of local feminist communities the Kaohsiung City government renovated the Twenty five Maiden Ladies Tomb and renamed it the Memorial Park for Women Laborers Haunted Modernities interrogates the nature of shared expressions of history sentiments and memory as it investigates the role of these women and other female workers in the shifting public narrative during and after the Maiden Ladies Tomb renovation By exploring the ways in which the deceased young women were perceived to haunt the living and the diverse renovations recommended the book illuminates how women workers in Taiwan have been conceptualized in the last several decades In their proposals to renovate the tomb the interested parties forged specific accounts of history transforming the collective burial site according to varying definitions of heritage as Taiwan shifted to a postindustrial economy where factory jobs were no longer the main source of employment Their plans engaged with acts of remembering communal and individual to create new ways of understanding the present The Twenty five Maiden Ladies Tomb as a heritage site elucidates how history and memory are not simply about the past but part of a forward looking process that emerges from the social political and economic needs of the present legitimized and validated through its associations with the past

Weaving Women's Spheres in Vietnam ,2015-11-30 Weaving Women s Spheres in Vietnam offers an in depth study of the status of women in Vietnamese society through an examination of their roles in the context of family religious and local community life from anthropological historical and sociological perspectives Unlike previous works on gender issues relating to Vietnam which focus on women as passive subjects and are restricted to specific spheres such as family this book through a series of case studies and life stories not only examines the suppressive gender structure of the Vietnamese family but also demonstrates Vietnamese women s agency in appropriating that structure and creating alternative spheres for women which they have interwoven in between the dominant realms of public and private spheres in the areas of family religious practice community organizations and politics including their participation in the re construction of national identity Accordingly this volume is expected to become an important new benchmark relating to gender issues in Asian societies especially in the context of so called transitional societies such as China and Vietnam Contributors include Kirsten W Endres Ito Mariko Ito Miho Kato Atsufumi Hy V Luong Miyazawa Chihiro Thien Huong T Ninh Tran Thi Minh Thi

Connected and Disconnected in Viet Nam Philip Taylor,2016-03-31 Vietnam s shift to a market based society has brought about profound realignments in its people s relations with each other As the nation continues its retreat from the legacies of war and socialism significant social rifts have emerged that divide citizens by class region and ethnicity By drawing on social connections as a traditional resource Vietnamese are able to accumulate wealth overcome marginalisation and achieve social mobility However such relationship building strategies are also fraught with peril for they have the potential to entrench pre existing social divisions and lead to new forms of disconnectedness This book examines the dynamics of connection and disconnection in the lives of contemporary Vietnamese It features 11 chapters by anthropologists who draw upon research in both highland and lowland contexts to shed light on social capital disparities migration inequalities and the benefits and perils of gift exchange The authors investigate ethnic minority networks the politics of poverty patriotic citizenship and the heritagisation of culture Tracing shifts in how Vietnamese people relate to their consociates and others the chapters elucidate the social legacies of socialism nation building and the transition to a globalised market based economy With compelling case studies and including many previously unheard perspectives this book offers original insights into social ties and divisions among the modern Vietnamese Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Vietnam Jonathan D.
