Washing Line Jez Kindy Activities:

Designing Early Literacy Programs Lea M. McGee, Donald J. Richgels, 2014-05-01 This acclaimed teacher resource and course text describes proven ways to accelerate the language and literacy development of young children including those at risk for reading difficulties. The authors draw on extensive research and classroom experience to present a complete framework for differentiated instruction and early intervention. Strategies for creating literacy-rich classrooms, conducting effective assessments, and implementing targeted learning activities are illustrated with vivid examples and vignettes. Helpful reproducible assessment tools are provided. Purchasers also get access to a Web page where they can download and print the reproducible materials in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size. Subject Areas: Keywords: assessments at risk, students beginning readers, CCSS, classroom environments, classrooms, Common Core State Standards, differentiated instruction, early childhood reading, early literacy, ELA, emergent English language arts, foundational skills, interventions, kindergarten language literacy development, preschool prevention programs, reading difficulties, response to intervention, RTI, struggling teaching, writing. Audience: Preschool and kindergarten teachers, reading specialists, school and child care administrators, instructors, and students in early childhood education and early literacy.
