

Psy 201 Midterm 1 Study Guide

Chapter 1

Current perspectives in psychology:

- Biological: physical body interacting w/ environment
 - our DNA is carved by our environment
 - Evolutionary psych: focuses on how genetically influenced behavior that was functional or adaptive during our evolutionary past may be reflected in many of our present behaviors, mental processes, and traits
- Learning: how the environment and experience affect a persons actions
 - Behaviorism organisms behavior shaped by environment
 - Social-cognitive learning theory combine elements of behaviorism with research on thoughts, values and intentions
 - learn by adapting their behavior to environment and by imitating others and by thinking about the events happening around them
- Cognitive: emphasizes mental processes in perception, memory, language, problem solving, and other areas of behavior
 - Constructs
 - Modeling mental processes
- Sociocultural perspective: emphasizes social and cultural influences on behavior

Representative samples

- What are they? group of individuals, selected from a population for study, which matches that pop or important characteristics such as age and sex
 - random
 - generalizable
- Why is diversity important? for accurate cross-sections

Case studies: a detailed description of a particular individual being studied or treated

- Benefits
 - illustrate psychological principles
 - abstract generalizations
 - produce a more detailed pic of an individual
- drawbacks
 - info is usually missing or hard to interpret
 - has limited usefulness for deriving general principles of behavior
 - case studies are usually only sources rather than tests
- Genie and Phineas Gage Genie locked away from society her whole life and was never able to speak. Phineas had a rod puncture his skull and would act out of character (impulse inhibition)

Observational studies: which the researcher carefully and systematically observes and records behavior without interfering with the behavior
