Un-Australian Fictions Eleni Pavlides, 2014-08-11 Un-Australian Fictions sets out to analyse a subset of Australian literary fictions published between 1988 and 2008 from the bicentenary of British settlement to the global financial crisis and into a new millennium During a new transnational era Australians faced sober and unsettling times Already accorded the status of national obsession issues of national identity were vigorously contested Concepts such as the nation multiculturalism and globalisation became topics for heated discussion in the public sphere Australia's literary communities were not immune or isolated from these ongoing discussions The un-Australian fictions which this book studies represent the challenges which these texts in their own unique way bring to the Australian national ethos and the national mythology which is predicated on traditions such as masculism a bush ethos the pre-eminence of white colonial settlement connectedness to an imaginative European geography as well as an unbreakable tie to Britain As un-Australian fictions these texts reflect the destabilisation of what were once certain spatial and psychic borders and orders of Australianness They affect as well as reflect the wider conversation that continues today about what being Australian means in a new millennium HSC Standard English Barry Spurr, Lloyd Cameron, 2009 This guide contains comprehensive summary and discussion of all 44 prescribed texts in the HSC Standard English course plus a list of key issues to consider in each chapter related to the relevant syllabus area helpful advice on how to read different types of texts plot outlines character discussion and interpretations HSC Advanced English Barry Spurr, 2009 This guide contains an introduction to the new course plus exam tips comprehensive summary and discussion of each text in the Advanced English course including Area of Study and Advanced English Modules a list of key issues to consider in each chapter related to the relevant syllabus area helpful advice on how to read different types of texts and plot outlines character discussion and interpretations Publisher description The Critical Review, 2001 APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service, Transformative Philosophy Thomas Wallgren, 2006-01-01 The cross fruition between analytical philosophy and continental philosophical traditions has stimulated a wide ranging debate about the role of philosophy and the use of argument and reason in culture Through a discussion of salient themes in the analytical tradition in the work of the later Wittgenstein and in critical theory Transformative Philosophy articulates a novel conception of philosophy as a transformative care for self and others The Adaptation Industry Simone Murray, 2012-03-12 Adaptation constitutes the driving force of contemporary culture with stories adapted across an array of media formats However adaptation studies has been concerned almost exclusively with textual analysis in particular with compare and contrast studies of individual novel and film pairings This has left almost completely unexamined crucial questions of how adaptations come to be made what are the industries with the greatest stake in making them and who the decision makers are in the adaptation process The Adaptation Industry re imagines adaptation not as an abstract process but as a material industry It presents the adaptation industry as a cultural economy of six interlocking institutions stakeholders and decision makers all engaged in the actual business of adapting texts authors agents publishers book prize committees scriptwriters and screen producers and distributors Through trading in intellectual property rights to cultural works these six nodal points in the adaptation network are tightly interlinked with success for one party potentially auguring for success in other spheres But marked rivalries between these institutional forces also exist with competition characterizing every aspect of the adaptation process This book constructs an overdue sociology of contemporary literary adaptation never losing sight of the material and institutional dimensions of this powerful process The Ascetic Ideal Stephen Mulhall, 2021-08-12 In The Ascetic Ideal Stephen Mulhall shows how areas of cultural life that seem to be either essentially unconnected to evaluative commitments science and philosophy or to involve non moral values aesthetics are in fact deeply informed by ethico religious commitments for better and for worse The book develops a reading of Nietzsche s concept of the ascetic ideal which he used to track the evolution mutation and expansion of the system of slave moral values associated primarily with Judaeo Christian religious belief through diverse fields of Western European culture not just religion and morality but aesthetics science and philosophy Mulhall also offers an interpretation of Nietzsche s genealogical method that aims to rebut standard criticisms of its nature and to emphasize its potential for enhancing philosophical understanding more generally The focus throughout is on developments in those fields which occurred after the end of Nietzsche s intellectual career and in particular on influential modes of thought and practice that have a contemporary significance The goal is not simply to argue that Nietzsche s diagnosis and critique retains considerable merit but also to show that Nietzsche is himself significantly indebted to the ideals he criticizes and that this opens up a possibility of synthesizing elements of his approach with those drawn from its target Hence the book also tracks various ways in which the object of Nietzsche's criticism has undergone further mutations just as his genealogical method would suggest and in doing so has generated ways of pursuing the values central to asceticism that avoid Nietzsche's criticisms and might even further his own goals

The Self in Moral Space David Parker, 2018-07-05 All of us take our moral bearings from a conception of the good or a range of goods that we consider most important We are in this sense selves in moral space Building on the work of the philosopher Charles Taylor among others David Parker examines a range of classic and contemporary autobiographies including those of St Augustine William Wordsworth Friedrich Nietzsche Edmund Gosse Roland Barthes Seamus Heaney and J M Coetzee to reveal a whole domain of life narrative that has been previously ignored one that enables a new approach to the question of what constitutes a good life narrative Moving from an ethics toward an aesthetics of life writing Parker follows Wittgenstein's view that ethics and aesthetics are one The Self in Moral Space is distinctive in that its key ethical question is not What is it right for the life writer to do but the broader question What is it good to be This question opens up an important debate with the dominant postmodern paradigms that prevail in life writing studies today In Parker's estimation such paradigms are incapable of explaining why life writing matters in the contemporary context Life narrative he argues faces readers with the perennial ethical question How should a human being live We need a new reconstructive paradigm as offered by this book in order to gain a fuller understanding of life narrative and its humanistic potential Australian Book Review, 2000 Philosophy, Ethics and a Common Humanity Christopher Cordner, 2012-04-27 The work of Raimond Gaita in books such as Good and Evil An Absolute Conception A Common Humanity and The Philosopher's Dog has made an outstanding and controversial contribution to philosophy and to the wider culture In this superb collection an international team of contributors explore issues across the wide range of Gaita's thought including the nature of good and evil philosophy and biography the unthinkable Plato and ancient philosophy Wittgenstein the religious dimensions of Gaita's work aspects of the Holocaust and aboriginal reconciliation in Australia Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson, 2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year
