Ilg, 2012-01-18 The six year old is a complex child entirely different from the five year old Though many of the changes are for the good Six is growing more mature more independent more daring and adventurous this is not necessarily an easy time for the little girl or boy Relationships with mothers are troubled most of the time Six adores mother but whenever things go wrong it's her fault. It used to be at five that she was the center of the child's universe; now the child is the center of his own universe. Parents need the expert advice of Drs. Ames and Ilg during this difficult year to explain parent-child relationships, friendships with peers, what six-year-olds excel at, how they see the world, what it feels like to be entering the first grade. Children need patience and understanding to help make this transition easier. Resources in Education, 1989
