Manuel Élémentaire de Droit Romain Paul Frédéric Girard, 1911 Regeneration Through Empire Margaret Cook Andersen, 2015 Following France's defeat in the Franco Prussian War in 1870-71 French patriots feared that their country was in danger of becoming a second rate power in Europe Decreasing birth rates had largely slowed French population growth and the country's population was not keeping pace with that of its European neighbors To regain its standing in the European world France set its sights on building a vast colonial empire while simultaneously developing a policy of pronatalism to reverse these demographic trends Though representing distinct political movements colonial supporters and pronatalist organizations were born of the same crisis and reflected similar anxieties concerning France's trajectory and position in the world Regeneration through Empire explores the intersection between colonial lobbyists and pronatalists in France's Third Republic Margaret Cook Andersen argues that as the pronatalist movement became more organized at the end of the nineteenth century pronatalists increasingly understood their demographic crisis in terms that transcended the boundaries of the metropole and began to position the French empire specifically its colonial holdings in North Africa and Madagascar as a key component in the nation's regeneration Drawing on an array of primary sources from French archives Regeneration through Empire is the first book to analyze the relationship between depopulation and imperialism Prise en charge de l'insomnie Sylvie Royant-Parola, Agnès Brion, Isabelle Poirot, 2017-09-19 La m decine du sommeil discipline r cente et en pleine expansion b n ficie d sormais de recherches importantes dans tous les domaines de la m decine qui lui sont

Women's Activism in Africa Balghis Badri, Aili Mari Tripp, 2017-02-15 Throughout Africa growing numbers of women are coming together and making their voices heard mobilising around causes ranging from democracy and land rights to campaigns against domestic violence In Tanzania and Tunisia women have made major gains in their struggle for equal political rights and in Sierra Leone and Liberia women have been at the forefront of efforts to promote peace and reconciliation While some of these movements have been influenced by international feminism and external donors increasingly it is African women who are shaping the global struggle for women's rights Bringing together African authors who themselves are part of the activist groups this collection represents the only comprehensive and up to date overview of women's movements in contemporary Africa Drawing on case studies and fresh empirical material from across the continent the authors challenge the prevailing assumption that notions of women's rights have trickled down from the global north to the south showing instead that these movements have been shaped by above all the unique experiences and concerns of the local women involved
