Unfiltered Unveiled The Unfiltered Series Book 9:

Unfiltered Sophie White, 2020-06-18 White's sharp eyed take on modern life couldn't be more on target Irish Independent All looks perfect for Ali and Shelly And that's what counts right But beneath the filters it's a different story Ali Jones is dealing with a lot The fallout from her ill conceived plan to fake a pregnancy to gain new social media followers an inbox filled with horrible messages her ex is still ignoring her Oh and she actually is pregnant For real this time But as Ali debates trying to salvage her online career as a desperate step to support her baby Queen of the Influencers Shelly Devine discovers that her mysterious stalker seems to know a shocking amount about the life not shown in her glossy aspirational content a life Shelly wants to keep hidden As Ali and Shelly try to figure out how to live their lives online they start to realise that the lines between fact and fiction are still blurry even for them And are they in danger of losing the people that matter most

Psychedelic Mysticism Morgan Shipley, 2015-11-12 Concerned with scholarly popular and religious backdrops that understand the connection between psychedelics and mystical experiences to be devoid of moral concerns and ethical dimensions a position supported empirically by the rise of acid fascism and psychedelic cults by the late 1960s Psychedelic Mysticism Transforming Consciousness Religious Experiences and Voluntary Peasants in Postwar America traces the development of sixties psychedelic mysticism from the deconditioned mind and perennial philosophy of Aldous Huxley to the sacramental ethics of Timothy Leary Richard Alpert and Ralph Metzner to the altruistic religiosity practiced by Stephen Gaskin and The Farm Building directly off the pioneering psychedelic writing of Huxley these psychedelic mystics understood the height of psychedelic consciousness as an existential awareness of unitive oneness a position that offered worldly alternatives to the maladies associated with the postwar moment e.g. vapid consumerism and materialism lifeless conformity unrelenting racism heightened militarism In opening a doorway to a common world Morgan Shipley locates how psychedelics challenged the coherency of Western modernity by fundamentally reorienting postwar society away from neoliberal ideologies and toward a sacred understanding of reality defined by mutual coexistence and responsible interdependence In 1960s America psychedelics catalyzed a religious awakening defined by compassion expressed through altruism and actualized in projects that sought to ameliorate the conditions of the least advantaged among us In the exact moments that historians and cultural critics often locate as signaling the death knell of the counterculture Gaskin and The Farm emerged not as a response to the perceived failures of the hippies nor as an alternative to sixties politics but in an effort to fulfill the religious obligation to help teach the world how to live more harmoniously Today as we continue to confront issues of socioeconomic inequality entrenched differences widespread violence and the limits of religious pluralism Psychedelic Mysticism serves as a timely reminder of how religion in America can operate as a tool for destabilization and as a means to actively reimagine the very basis of how people relate such a legacy can aid in our own efforts to build a more peaceful sustainable and compassionate world

Unfiltered Associate Director Eric Feldman, 2004-08-15 Tobacco among the most popular consumer products of the twentieth century is under attack Once a behavior that knew no social bounds cigarette smoking has been transformed into an activity that reflects sharp differences in social status Unfiltered tells the story of how anti smoking advocates public health professionals bureaucrats and tobacco corporations have clashed over smoking regulation The nations discussed in this book Australia Canada Denmark France Germany Japan the United Kingdom and the United States restrict tobacco advertising tax tobacco products and limit where smoking is permitted Each is also struggling to shape a tobacco policy that ensures corporate accountability protects individual liberty and asserts the state s public health power Unfiltered offers a comparative perspective on legal political and social conflicts over tobacco control The book makes a unique contribution to our understanding of how scientific evidence global health advocacy individual risk assessments and governmental interests intersect in the crafting of tobacco policy It features national case studies and cross cultural essays by experts in health policy law political science history and sociology The lessons in Unfiltered are crucial to all who seek to understand and influence tobacco policy and reduce tobacco related mortality worldwide

Bell,2024-03-31 From early explorers to contemporary scientists naturalists have examined island flora and fauna of Oceania discovering new species carefully documenting the lives of animals and creating work central to the image of Oceania These discoveries and exploratory moves have had profound local and global impacts Often however local knowledge and communities are silent in the ethnologies and histories that naturalists produce This volume analyzes the ways that Indigenous and non Indigenous naturalists have made island natures visible to a wider audience their relationship with the communities where they work as well as the unique natures that they explore and help make In staking out an area of naturalist histories each contributor addresses the relationship between naturalists and Oceanic communities how these histories shaped past and present place and practices the influence on conservations and development projects and the relationship between scientific and indigenous knowledge The essays span across colonial and postcolonial frames tracing shifts in biological practice from the eighteenth and nineteenth century focus on taxonomy and discovery to the twentieth century disciplinary restructurings and new collecting strategies and contemporary concerns with biodiversity loss conservation and knowledge formation The production of scientific knowledge is typically seen in ethnographic accounts as oppositional contrasting Indigenous and western local and global objective and subjective Such dichotomous views reinforce differences and further exaggerate inequities in the production of knowledge More dangerously value distinctions become embedded in discussions of Indigenous identity rights and sovereignty Contributors acknowledge that these dichotomous narratives have dominated the approach of the scientific community while informing how social scientists have understood the contributions of Pacific communities The essays offer a nuanced gradient as historical narratives of scientific investigation in dialogue with local histories and reveal greater levels of participation in the creation of knowledge The volume highlights how power infuses the scientific endeavor and offers a distinct and diverse view of knowledge production in Oceania Combining senior and emerging international scholars the collection will be of interest to researchers in the social sciences history as well as biology and allied fields

Blogging Revolution Antony Loewenstein, 2011-08-01 The Blogging Revolution is a colourful and revelatory account of bloggers around the globe who live and write under repressive regimes many of them risking their lives in doing so Antony Loewenstein's travels take him to private parties in Iran and Egypt internet cafes in Saudi Arabia and Damascus to the homes of Cuban dissidents and into newspaper offices in Beijing where he discovers the ways in which the internet is threatening the rule of governments Through first hand investigations he reveals the complicity of Western multinationals in assisting the restriction of information in these countries and how bloggers are leading the charge for change This fully updated new edition of the book reveals some of the key players of the Arab Spring and how years of organising web dissent and bravery led to momentous changes in US backed dictatorships across the Middle East The Blogging Revolution is a superb examination about the nature of repression in the twenty first century and the power of brave individuals to overcome it

American Gas Journal, 1929 Image Control Patrick Nathan, 2022-08-09 Susan Sontag meets Hanif Abdurraqib in this fascinating exploration of the unexpected connections between how we consume images and the insidious nature of Fascism Images come at us quickly often without context A photograph of Syrian children suffering in the wake of a chemical attack segues into a stranger's pristine Instagram selfie Before we can react to either a new meme induces a laugh and a share While such constant give and take might seem innocent even entertaining this barrage of content numbs our ability to examine critically how the world broken down into images affects us Images without context isolate us turning everything we experience into mere transactions It is exactly this alienation that leaves us vulnerable to fascism a reactionary politics that is destroying not only our lives and our nations but also the planet's very ability to sustain human civilization Who gets to control the media we consume Can we intervene or at least mitigate the influence of constant content Mixing personal anecdotes with historical and political criticism Image Control explores art social media photography and other visual mediums to understand how our culture and our actions are manipulated all the while building toward the idea that if fascism emerges as aesthetics then so too can anti fascism Learning how to ethically engage with the world around us is the first line of defense we have against the forces threatening to tear that world apart

States. Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals, 2000 World No Tobacco Day 2023 Garima Bhatt , Sonu Goel, 2025-11-14 World No Tobacco Day takes place on the 31st of May trying to raise awareness of the dangers of tobacco consumption and the marketing strategies that the tobacco industry uses This year s theme highlights that not only does tobacco have a high toll on human health being a risk factor for cardiovascular and respiratory diseases and cancer and ultimately leading to 8 million deaths per year but it also has a high toll on the environment s health Planting tobacco crops leads to an annual loss of 600 million trees 22 billion tons of water and an emission of around 84 million tons of CO2 Furthermore tobacco plants are usually grown in low and middle income countries where farmland is needed to plant local and nutritious foods to nourish their local population The tobacco industry playbook has powerful disinformation and marketing strategies Overall they spend around 23 million US dollars daily on marketing and target vulnerable populations such as younger generations with advertisements on TV shows or influencers and farmers with misleading claims about the profit of tobacco crops In many countries its actions are directly targeted at political figures or parties to build alliances to hinder the strategies against tobacco The pursuit of a tobacco free world necessitates sustainable strategies that go beyond conventional tobacco control measures One promising approach gaining traction is the endgame approach This strategy focuses on setting a clear target for achieving zero tobacco use and implementing comprehensive policies to reach that goal entailing a multi pronged approach By combining evidence based policies public awareness campaigns and collaboration across sectors we can pave the way towards a sustainable and healthier future free from the devastating impact of tobacco and supporting in achieving the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs In this spirit Frontiers is launching a new article collection to coincide with World No Tobacco Day 2023 This occasion not only offers an opportunity to acknowledge and update the effects of tobacco on human health but also to consider its impact on the environment s health and its associated costs for taxpayers It is also the occasion to provide evidence of the effect of specific public health policies to countermeasure tobacco consumption The Frontiers in Public Health Research Topic aims to address the public health specific dimensions of World No Tobacco Day focusing on effective public health policies used worldwide to control the tobacco epidemic Topics may include but are by no means limited to The most recent WHO s efforts to fight tobacco consumption and the state of art of Tobacco end game The impacts of tobacco on human health and the trend in smoking habits around the world in relationship to public health intervention The effect on the health of second hand smoke and of the new smokeless products The environmental degradation associated with tobacco farming the generation and disposal of plastic components e g in e cigarettes or smokeless tobacco and toxic products which pollute our oceans rivers and parks in relationship to local regulations The costs for society associated with tobacco consumption or cigarette littering and effective public health policies implemented to make the tobacco industry responsible The impacts of the tobacco industry pressures on political parties or figures to contrast initiatives to regulate tobacco use New marketing strategies of the tobacco industry including for newer products such as heated tobacco products electronic delivery systems or electronic non nicotine delivery systems
